

Mansfield City Schools

Core Beliefs

Core Beliefs

- All children can learn.
- All children deserve a safe learning environment.
- Teaching and learning is shared responsibility of family, community, and students.
- Each individual is unique and has inherent value and potential.
- All children can be competitive in a global society.

Core Commitments

- All children will learn.
- Provide a safe learning environment.
- To engage family, community, school, and students in the teaching-learning process.
- To recognize and act upon the individual's uniqueness.
- All children will be competitive in a global society.

