Student Council Sponsors Many Different Activities

Paper drives, noon dances, picture shows and the boosting of war stamps and bonds sales are among the present activities of the Appleseed Student Council.

On Friday, March 16, the Council sponsored a paper drive. Students who brought twenty-five pounds of paper or magazines were given a ticket, intitling them to see a movie.

On March 12, the Council gave a noon dance. To gain entrance to this dance, the students had to buy on the previous Friday three ten-cent war stamps or one quarter stamp. With the money from the sale of these stamps and bonds, Appleseed is credited for the purchase of a field ambulance.

At noon shows that require identification before admittance, different members of the Council and of the Monitors' Association have been checking the identification slips.

History of Council

Appleseed's Student Council was organized in the fall of 1944 because the faculty and Mr. G. W. Harmony felt the need for a committee, consisting of students, who

BANDS, ORCHESTRAS TO PRESENT ASSEMBLY

Tuesday, April 24, combined Appleseed and Simpson bands and orchestras will present an assembly at both junior highs—during the third period at Appleseed, and during the fifth period at Simpson. The concert will be made up of band and orchestra numbers, solos and duets.

ENROLLMENT INCREASES

New enrollments of Appleseed since February are Patricia Summers from Clarksburg, West Va., Jack Warwick from Forest Gardens, Mich., Rex Driskell from Forest Gardens, Mich., Marilyn Teeters from Hollywood, Calif., Alice Goff and James Field from Simpson.

Cline Orchestra Plays For Dance

Dick Cline and his orchestra played for an open dance sponsored by the Student Council, Friday, April 13, from 7:45 until 11 P. M.

Betty Dysart was chairman of the ticket committee and her co-workers were Oleta Novotny, Vera Saleste, Lee Balyeat and Dixie Scoles.

On the check-room committee were Ruth Smith, chairman, Minerva Scott, Robert Busch, Dean Fyock, Kenneth Scott and Patsy Wilburn.

Bernard Weaver had as his assistants, Robert Bush and Jean Robinson.

Marilynn Graham, chairman of the decoration committee was assisted by Virginia Brownfield, Donna Brandt, Dick Haas, Ronald Hoffman and Richard Lanman.

The school publicity committee served for this occasion also: Betty Dysart, chairman, Elaine Foncannon, Joe Hess, Charles Young, Lee Balyeat, Catherine Wilging, and Marian Haring. Elaine, Marian and Thelma Stover made the posters advertising the dance.

C. E. Jones Discusses Gyroscopes, Planes

Mr. C. E. Jones presented an illustrated scientific lecture on gyroscopes, airplanes and the importance of study at an assembly in the auditorium, April 10.

Mr. Jones explained the principle of the gyroscope and demonstrated the way it works. He illustrated the statement that the gyroscope does what it wants to and nothing else, and spoke on the many uses for the gyroscope. Mr. Jones concluded the lecture with some helpful advice to students about studying and taking school-work seriously.

Mr. R. Y. Davis Speaks At P.T.A. Conference

When the North Central Ohio Institute of Parents and Teachers attended an all-day session, from 9:00 A. M. until 4:00 P. M. at Appleseed, Wednesday, April 11, Mrs. I. W. Basinger, president of the Institute, and Mr. R. Y. Davis of this school were the principal speakers.

Lunch was served to the delegates and members in the school cafeteria.

Seventh Grade Leads Honor Roll With 12 Students

MARILYN BEATTIE LEADS TYPING CLASS

Reaching a high speed with the least number of mistakes is the goal the typing students are trying to attain on their tests every Wednesday and Thursday. So far, the highest words per minute are forty which have been made by Marilyn Beattie. Thirty words per minute have been typed by Shirley Brigham, Janice Hoffman, Marilyn Treisch, Robert Bush, Nancy Galbraith, Janice Inscore and Betty Fox.

During the week they work from typing books which have different exercises in them. They have been working on business letters recently.

VICTORY NEWS

School Purchases Field Ambulance

Name to Be On Vehicle

In the near future the name of Appleseed will be seen on some battle field of the world, appearing there on the side of a field ambulance provided by the stamp and bond purchases of Appleseed students.

Appleseed went over its goal of $1,950 in war stamps and bonds to buy the field ambulance in February and March. In February the stamps sold in the rooms and sixteen bond sales totaled $982. In March, with fifteen bond buyers, the rooms sold $1145.65 in stamps and bonds. Some rooms had contests to promote the sale of stamps.

The school's name will be painted on the side of the ambulance. It will read, "Purchased by the students of Johnny Appleseed Junior High School." Mr. Harmony will send to the Cleveland district office to obtain a certificate of merit to show that the school has bought an ambulance.

April 23 through April 27 has been set as Citizenship week. Appleseed will try to get over 90 per cent of the students purchasing at least one stamp during the month of April so that the "Schools at War" flag can be flown.

FIFTEEN HUNDRED POUNDS COLLECTED IN PAPER DRIVE

740 pounds of magazines and 820 pounds of newspapers, 1560 pounds in all, were collected in the paper drive on March 16. The school received twelve dollars and eleven cents for the paper.

Each person who brought twenty-five pounds or more was given a ticket for a picture show which will be shown sometime in the near future.

School Pupils Spearhead Seventh War Loan Drive

Just as the high command calls upon its veteran shock troops to spearhead each invasion, so the Ohio Finance Committee has called upon school pupils, the veterans of two, three, four, five, even six War Loan Campaigns to spearhead the seventh drive.

April is the "Get Ready" Month. Each pupil was given a "Pledge Solicitation card." This card was to be taken home and signed by either a parent or some other person who wished to participate in the drive through the schools. When it was signed it signified that the signed is willing to buy War Bonds to his extreme limit in the months of April, May, and June—the months of the seventh war loan drive.

The committee depends on the school pupils to reach every home.

Names Put On Honor Roll

Each pupil who brought in a signed pledge was given the privilege of signing a special Honor Roll that will be sent to President Truman showing that he or she has completed the assigned mission in the seventh War Loan Drive.

Rooms Help Red Cross Drive

Although no requests were made of school children during the American Red Cross drive, two home rooms made contributions.

Miss Alice Kirkwood's home room contributed one dollar, and Miss Anita Strauch's home room gave $3.78 to the Red Cross.

ALUMNI IN SERVICE

Pfc. Jack Marshall is now a draftsman in the 89th division and is stationed somewhere in Germany. He was inducted July, 1943. Jack went to Johnny Appleseed in the ninth grade and was the president of 9-A.

Seaman Second Class Wayne Sweval of the navy was inducted October 16, 1944 at Columbus, Ohio. He has been training at Great Lakes, and was just recently transferred to New York to enter a gunnery school there.

Private Robert Goettle of the Infantry is stationed at Camp Robinson, Arkansas. He was inducted November 15, 1944 at Camp Atterbury, Indiana. Robert went to Appleseed in the ninth grade and was on our first football team.

Jim Smith was in Appleseed's first band and also on the track team. He is now a Hospital Apprentice First Class and is stationed at Shoemaker, California. Jim was transferred to Shoemaker after training at San Diego.

Stationed at San Francisco, California, Jack Leonard is an Electrician's Mate on a carrier. His job is to repair the wires on the carrier. He has trained at Great Lakes, Illinois, and at Purdue University. Jack enlisted February 12, 1944.

War Effort Honor Roll

Blood Donor: Mr. W. B. Lantz.

Max Morrison Wounded

Max Morrison was wounded in action in France. He was first taken to a hospital in England and then transferred to the Crile Hospital in Cleveland where he is reported to be improving.

HOME ROOMS HAVE STAMP CONTESTS

Many home rooms in Johnny Appleseed are having contests in bringing in sales tax stamps and in buying war stamps.

Miss Doris Doggett's home room is having a sales tax contest between the boys and the girls. The winning team will be treated to a party or picnic by the losing team.

Pupils in 115 are buying war stamps each Friday to buy a 50-caliber machine gun. They have a picture of this gun and as they buy stamps, they color part of the picture. They have eighty per cent of it colored and have been over ninety per cent all year in the buying of war stamps.

Miss Helen Herring's home room has a thermometer showing the amount of sales stamps brought in. For each five dollars' worth, a star is placed on this thermometer. They are also having a war stamp contest between the boys and girls. The team that loses will treat the opposing team to a picnic at the end of the year.

215 is also having a war stamp contest. The leaders of the opposing teams are Edward Wintermute and Patricia Knapp.

Mrs. A. L. Derr's home room is using a space at the side of the room for pictures of outstanding war personalities and will appreciate all contributions for it from pupils.

"More enthusiasm has been aroused in the buying of defense stamps," Mrs. Derr said. "Each row has been competing against the other and finding the results more effective toward the one one hundred per cent goal."

Sales Tax Check

Mr. G. W. Harmony recently received a check amounting to $223.02 for a shipment of sales tax stamps which were sent last January to the Department of Taxation in Columbus.

STUDENTS RECEIVE LETTERS OF THANKS

Three students of Appleseed have received letters of thanks for the match box covers that the Junior Red Cross sent to Veterans' Hospital in Chillicothe.

This letter was addressed to James Meister:

"Dear James:

Last night the Red Cross gave a party here at the hospital and I discovered the enclosed card in a very attractively decorated match box. Thanks to you and your friend for helping make these boxes. They cheered up many soldiers and WACs in the hospital. Keep up the good work.

Sincerely

Lt. Dan G. Hoffman."

Larry Goldsmith received this letter:

"Dear Larry:

I wish at this time to thank you for that very nice match box that you made.

It must be a grand feeling knowing that even being a young school boy you are doing your part for us that are in the army.

Well, I hope you had as much enjoyment out of making the box as I will have in using it.

If you can find time please answer this letter and I will only be too glad to answer you.

Best of luck to you,

Cpl. Edward Weiss."

This is the letter written to Marilyn McDonald:

"The Red Cross gave us a St. Patrick's Day party here at the hospital. We chose your match box because of your pretty name. You probably would like to know who made use of the box you put up.

One major, two captains, another WAC and myself. You should feel highly honored. By us you were.

Julia Benedict"

Utility kits will be made by the Home Ec girls for the Junior Red Cross project for April and May. These will be under the direction of Mrs. A. L. Derr.

Recently the chairman of the Richland County Junior Red Cross received the following letter which he forwarded to Mrs. Raymond Dent.

We wish to acknowledge and thank you for the attractive match boxes you kindly made and sent as favors for the patients of this hospital by the Mansfield Junior Red Cross. The work done on these was very clever and original, and the patients enjoyed just looking at them as works of art. We are sure they will enjoy using them also.

We thank you again for your kindness and generosity.

Very truly yours,

D. C. MURPHY,

Colonel, M. C.

Manager

WE HAVE NOT YET WON

Our fighting men will never fail us: we on the War Bond front will not fail them.

The war is costing us more than $10,000,000 an hour, $175,000 every minute, $3,000 every second.

In addition the armies need more of everything.

MORE B-29 Superfortresses that cost $600,000 each.

MORE P-47 Thunderbolts that cost $50,000 each.

MORE M-4 tanks with bulldozer blades that cost $67,417 each. Everyone must continue to put all extra money into War Bonds and Stamps.

In the seventh War Loan Drive, Ohio's quota is $403,000,000. This total must be achieved.

STOP! DON'T THROW IT AWAY!

Are you saving all accumulated waste paper? You should be! No matter how small that piece of paper may be—save it!

Statistics show that a week's collection of the smallest particles of paper, when turned into the mill, produced enough paper to wrap overseas supplies for a period of three months.

Waste paper also serves for packing tightly small-arms ammunition.

These are only two of the many reasons why we should conserve and collect all waste paper.

So come on, Appleseeders, and really pitch in! The next time we have a paper drive let's all try to cooperate the best way we know how. Of course if you've already contributed to the paper drive, that's fine, but those people who haven't should think over just how valuable this waste paper really is.

SPRING IS HERE

Ah, spring! Beautiful spring! When young men's fancy lightly turns to—baseball. At least that is what is on the minds of most Appleseed dream boys these days.

That's all very fine, as long as you play on the playing field, but the trouble is, too many of our future "Babe Ruths" think the front-lawn is much nicer for ball-playing. At this time of year lawns are soft and should not be stepped on, because the young grass plants are so easily killed.

Not only should we be careful not to play on the lawn, but we shouldn't cut across it either and wear paths in it. This also applies to lawns at home, and lawns of other people in the community.

That's enough preaching for a while, so let's all go out and enjoy the spring sunshine—in the right places!

BACK THE STUDENT COUNCIL

This issue of the Press is dedicated to the Student Council. Appleseed's Council is made up of some of the best citizens and scholars of the school. They decide many of the policies and practices of Johnny Appleseed. New ideas come from this body. These people represent you! You voted for them!

Now the council is planning for Citizenship Week. A committee has been chosen to work with the teachers on this project. Maybe YOU will be chosen as a good citizen. Let's all try to act the part!

Our Principal Says—

This year we are going to celebrate Good Citizenship week in the period from April 23 to 27. During that week we will again select the outstanding citizens of Appleseed. In judging who are the best citizens of our school we will take into consideration the qualities of courtesy, good sportsmanship, dependability and cooperation. Candidates for these awards will possess these attributes in abundance. No student will be selected who does not display these qualities.

Another quality of the good citizen is leadership. The Good Citizen will set an example of good conduct before his fellow students and will lead the way in improving conditions in his school. The poor citizen is rather the follower adopting the "easiest way" as his course. Success in life is largely dependent upon this important quality of leadership.

It is easy to follow a course of taking the path of least resistance. In that way students develop a spineless attitude of "getting by." Some people who lack in character will do this, but the person of really fine character will lead the way to better citizenship by setting an example worthy of following. So citizens of our school who are leaders in good citizenship should be placed on the roll of honor when we elect our Good Citizens for this year.

Eighth Graders Make Citizenship Posters

Making posters to stress good citizenship keeps the eighth graders busy. Some of the ideas illustrated on the posters are removal of hats in school, lowered voices, walking in halls, to and from school, bus travel, courtesy to older people and respect for property rights.

Seventh graders have been using the geometric designs which they learned to construct in math classes in making color charts for art.

EXCHANGE

Printed in the Announcer from the John Marshall Junior High School in Brooklyn, New York, came these poems.

TESTS

Days of worry, days of woe,
Why do teachers treat us so?
Tests! how they fill us with wretched fright,
How we hope against hope that our answers are right.
For nights you study still you're wise as a sage;
Too late you find it was on the wrong page.
And of all days for a headache
and a pen to run dry.
And of all days for jitters, "Why,
a test day?" I sigh.
Teachers, hear us, hear our plea,
In our tests, please show mercy,
All our cries, are they in vain?
(They are).

WHEN I AM SAD

All of nature
Is wasted upon me
When I am sad;
The simple dignity
Of rolling hills,
The calm beauty
Of a clear lake,
The grass, the trees,
The smell of pavement
After storms, cities, sky-
scrapers,
Even men and women.
Why can't my mind remember
When I'm unhappy
How much they mean to me
When I am glad?

LOST AND FOUND BOXES CONTAIN GREAT VARIETY

"Oh! Look at this mess!" This is what you would say if you rummaged through the lost-and-found boxes. Well, let's look at the first box—a pair of gloves, earmuffs, purses, paint pans, pencil cases, crayons, paints, ribbons, combs, glass cases, pen points, beads, a compact and a bracelet.

Here's another box, so let's get started. Let's see, a handkerchief, lipstick, hair net, erasers, yo-yo, umbrella, pens, compasses, keys, scissors, pins, locks, charm, books, magazines and sweaters.

One more box to go. Some of the things in this box are glasses, eversharp pencils, notebooks, and paint brushes. Also there are scarfs, gym suits, mittens, stockings and lots of aprons.

Please, if any of these things look familiar to you, come into the office and get them.

Seventh English Classes Write Poems, Choose Best

Miss Edith Beck's seventh grade English classes wrote poems as one of their assignments. These are the poems which the pupils themselves considered best.

SUBJECT—ENGLISH

Verbs and adverbs, pronouns and nouns,
Are being taught in cities and towns.
Transitive verbs and adjectives too,
Most of these terms surely are new!

Now we are telling poems and jokes,
And little things called anecdotes.
The kids all laugh; the teacher does too.
Gee! there's the bell. Class is through.

Marilyn Schuler, 7A4

A DREAM

When I was sleeping,
I heard something creeping.
I thought it was a mouse in our house.
I looked around like a hunting hound.
I got out of bed like a sleepy head.
I saw a box. I opened it up,
And there was a fox.
He grabbed for my arm—
And off went the alarm.

Wouldn't It Be Queer?

Have you seen those four legged creatures who try to enter the school every morning? No, they are not human beings. Why, of course, they are dogs.

Every morning they try to enter the school and go into the office and classrooms. Some are early and some are late, just like pupils. Of course, this causes excitement among the pupils, because everyone tries to call the dog into his or her room.

Wouldn't it be peculiar to have educated dogs? I mean dogs who walk, talk, and read like human beings. No, it couldn't be, because they don't let the dogs in the

Betty's Broadcast

(Over Station JAJH)

This is your roving reporter again with a little advice to all you people stricken with spring fever—for curing your spring fever why not try looking out of the windows in a study hall or class? This might get you into "deep water" with the teacher, but think of all the beautiful spring weather you see.

If lately you have been running into some ninth grade girls who look a little sunburned that's because for many Sunday afternoons they have been taking hikes and having, what they call, "slews of fun." Why don't more of you get out and hike in this beautiful spring weather? It also helps a lot, girls, for those G. A. A. points.

Which reminds me of the coming G. A. A. picnic which is going to be held not so long in the future. So come on, girls, let's get those awards we all want.

Happy memories of the farewell party for Shannon Talley are in many people's minds and I do mean many people because there were approximately forty girls and boys there, but what's a party without a lot of people? I'm sure we all want to wish Shannon good luck in Ashland.

Well, fans, that just about closes "ye olde broadcast" for this time, so, till next time, this is your roving reporter, signing off.

The prizes are two dollars for first place, one dollar and fifty cents for second place and one dollar for third place.

Committee Chosen

A nomination committee to select next year's officers and leaders of the Monitors' Association was chosen at the Monitors' meeting March 8. The committee includes Bill Eggleston, chairman, Barbara Garn, Billy Endriss and Barbara Perry.

SHOP CLASSES LEARN THREE KINDS OF WORK

Ninth grade shop classes of Mr. G. A. Clouse are divided into three groups. One group takes machine shop work; another, sheet metal work, and the third, electrical work. Every six weeks they change around so that they will all have a chance to know something about each trade. This helps the ninth graders to choose what they want to take in the way of shop at Senior High.

The eighth graders, for the most part, are doing wood work. Two sections, however, are doing elementary metal work. They will continue to do the same the rest of the year.

Girl Scout Troops Have Varied Activities

Troop 23 of the Girl Scouts, which meets every Monday night after school at the Baptist Church, is using every meeting to work on a Music Badge. The girls made a notebook which contained material about Irving Berlin and Beethoven. They also learned many folk songs.

Mrs. H. E. Edwards and Mrs. M. D. Harnly are the leaders.

Troop 21

Troop 21 is working on their first class badge and hope to get it before summer.

Troop 17

Troop 17 had a shower for their assistant scout leader Mrs. William Myers on March 21, at her home. Mrs. Myers received many nice gifts.

Troop 16

Troop 16 is working on a scrapbook for a girl scout troop in Mississippi. The girls are putting in information about our school, and especially our home economic classes.

Troop 19

Troop 19 is working on the Food Badge. They have made their favors and will soon have the other work finished.

Troop 28

Troop 28 was invited to the cabin built by the girls in the troop at Lincoln Heights.

On Wednesday, March 28, they held a covered dish dinner to celebrate their second birthday. They are planning an over-night hike to the scout cabin soon.

Appleseed Hi-Y News

Jesse Beer was the speaker for the Johnny Appleseed Hi-Y Tuesday, March 13. Mr. Beer talked over the different courses at Senior High School. Hi-Y boys asked him what subjects they should take, and other questions concerning the work at high school.

Lowell McCracken and David Rondell have been voted into the Johnny Appleseed Hi-Y.

Several of the Hi-Y boys have been going swimming often after the meetings.

Plans for a luncheon to be given later for parents of the Hi-Y boys have been discussed at the meetings.

Jolly Juniors Give Tea For Mothers

Jolly Junior girls had their tea which was held at the Y. W. C. A. on Sunday afternoon, April 15. Those in attendance were the mothers of the Jolly Juniors. The girls served tea and cookies. They also gave a short program about Girl Reserves in other countries. They wore blue and white, the Girl Reserve colors. Most of them also wore the Girl Reserve emblem on their white sweaters or blouses.

Slumber Party Enjoyed

Several ninth grade girls who have organized a club had a slumber party, March 16, at the home of Catherine Donley. The girls ate their dinner down town, and later went to the theater. After the motion picture, they went to the home of the hostess where refreshments were served.

The girls present were, Catherine Donley, Vera Saleste, Marilyn Beattie, Gerri Stall, Janice Hoffmann, Kathryn Karbula, Harriett Lutz, Betty DeLaney, Martha Tracy, Barbara Jordan, and Beverly Phallen.

Girl Reserves Busy

Girls in Mrs. LeRoy B. Holden's Girl Reserve troop meet once a month at Johnny Appleseed for their varied programs.

On March 27 the John Simpson Girl Reserves gave a special service for them. It helped the girls to get better acquainted.

Plans are being made for a picnic in the latter part of April but the date isn't definite as yet.

J. R. Turner, Scoutmaster of Troop 6, and C. G. Hillier, Scoutmaster of Troop 8, said that their troops have no plans for the near future.

Boy Scouts Work For Merit Badges

Troop 2 has been working for four merit badges. The First Aid group meets every Monday night. Charles Kimmel is the leader. The boys who are working with the Bird Study group meet every Wednesday night. The leader is Edward Bullock. The group that is studying Camping and Cooking meets on Friday nights with Scoutmaster Lyonel Culp in charge. Edward Bullock is his assistant. Shannon Talley, Senior Patrol Leader, and Joe Peters, David Bell and Bud Leppert are helping out.

A trip has been arranged by the Dad's Club so that Jerry Hayes Jr. can take the boys through the Empire Steel Mill in April.

Troop 10

Troop 10 had a covered-dish supper for their parents on March 27 at 6:30.

Each boy is trying to collect 1,000 pounds of paper and magazines for the Eisenhower badge.

The boys are planning a trip to Canada which will come some time in June or July.

FASHION FLASHES

In these modern days, girls and boys are copying some of each other's ideas, such as the two-tone sport jackets with the checked sleeves and the back and the front of the jacket being plain. These jackets are very common around school.

With summer coming, more broom stick skirts will be seen. Most of these skirts are large flowered cotton, or chintz which makes up beautifully. Also, gathered skirts are very nice, worn with a white blouse. Full skirted dresses made of seersucker with full sleeves are striking. Two-piece sport dresses are becoming for almost every occasion.

Weskets are very striking worn with slacks or jodphurs, for sport parties or hikes.

Flowers worn in your hair are very pretty. Some of the flowers look real, but they shouldn't be too large.

MR. MOUNT EXPLAINS TABERNACLE MODEL

Mr. Ralph Mount appeared in the Easter assembly program in the auditorium March 28. He showed the students a model of the ancient Wilderness Tabernacle which he had built to scale.

Mr. G. W. Harmony opened the program, leading the students in the Pledge of Allegiance. He also awarded prizes to the American Legion Essay Contest winners. Out of the six prizes given to ninth grade pupils, Appleseed received four. The awards were presented to Lee Balyeat, Eldon Roberts, Bill Shultz and Martha Jamison.

Mr. Mount, who is an engineer at the Westinghouse, has as his hobby religion. He opened his talk with a prayer. His main topic was the building of the Wilderness Tabernacle, which was built many years before Christ and foretold the Crucifixion of Jesus.

After a concluding prayer he gave the students an opportunity to ask questions.

Mr. Mount appeared last year at Johnny Appleseed.

Ninth Graders Use Library in English Assignments

Ninth graders have been using the library a great deal this semester. Recently they finished looking up reference material on Scotland and Sir Walter Scott, in connection with their reading of "Lady of the Lake." Now they are doing library research on the life of Shakespeare and on the history of the English theater as part of their "Midsummer Night's Dream" unit.

Many seventh graders, too, are making use of the library for information concerning the Latin American countries which Miss Edith Beck's geography classes are studying.

During February the average daily circulation of books was 138 or a total of 2424 for the month. This average is not as high as it was a year ago.

FRENCH CLASS STUDIES FINE ARTS OF FRANCE

Besides learning new items of grammar (the imperative mood and the compound tense) the French class has been getting a bird's eye view of the architecture, painting, sculpture, music, literature and science of France. The students are learning to recognize the most outstanding types of architecture and to identify the names of famous French painters, sculptors, musicians, writers and scientists.

Did you hear one of Mr. Harmony's telephone conversations over your homeroom radio one day last week? He forgot to turn off the radio after an announcement.

Athletes of the Month

Beverly Phallen was chosen athlete of the month for the ninth grade because she has a lot of points. She was one of the few people that got their A's at the G. A. A. banquet.

Beverly's favorite food is steak (try and get it) and her hobby is collecting miniature horses. She claims she likes horseback riding best in the summer and skating best in the winter.

Her favorite hair style is one with bangs for girls that can wear them. The hair should not be too long and not too short. Long nails with black polish is definitely out.

Beverly can usually be seen with JoAnn McCombs and Barbara Jordan. She reports to 101.

Little Mary Jo Staninger was chosen athlete of the month for the seventh grade. She is in some clubs such as Girl Scouts and G. A. A.

Her favorite food is chop suey and her hobby is collecting odd pieces of glass. Her ambition is to be a stenographer.

She says her favorite winter sport is ice skating and her favorite summer sport is playing tennis. She also likes baseball.

She likes to see girls in broomstick skirts and blouses and boys in red sweaters. Favorite hair style is a featherbob.

Mary Jo reports to 212.

Jean McCarrick is Appleseed's eighth grade athlete of the month.

Jean is very active in all sports at school so therefore she is a very athletic person.

Her hobbies are collecting pictures of movie stars and gathering tiny perfume bottles. Her favorite food is macaroni and cheese.

She likes to see girls in pleated skirts and buttoned sweaters and likes to see boys in maroon sweaters with "T" shirts under them.

Girls Enjoy Banquet

Laughter was the key note of the G. A. A. banquet this year. Usually there are tears shed but this year it was different. The members arrived at the cafeteria at six o'clock, Wednesday, March 7, and were seated by Marilyn Beattie, Gerri Stall, Peggy Cole, and Oleta Novotny who were the ushers.

The cafeteria was decorated as a ship and in keeping with the theme, little pasteboard sailors were on the tables as place cards and menus. Also in the sailors was the program. The first thing on the program was Shootin' the Breeze with Nancy Osburn, mistress of ceremonies, explaining the rules and regulations of the evening. Mrs. Hypes and her staff then served chow which consisted of creamed chicken on biscuits, potato chips, fresh fruit salad, hot rolls, hot fudge sundaes, and cookies.

Betty Dysart, Jean Robinson, and Barbara Koroknay's "Korny Korns" made up the after dinner entertainment. Betty played a piano concerto and a boogie woogie piece. Jean sang "You Always Hurt the One You Love" and "I Dream of You." Then Korky's Korny Korn Komb chorus played "Au Au Eight" and "Here Comes the Navy."

Finally the part of the program that every one was waiting for came and the awards were given to those who had earned them. Gifts were presented to Mr. George W. Harmony and Mrs. John Rachel by Martha Jamison and Cass Wilging for their help throughout the year. Mr. Harmony was presented with a brown leather billfold after which he made a short speech. Mrs. Rachel was presented with an identification bracelet with her name inscribed on it.

Ships Chanty was the last thing on the program with all the members singing the G. A. A. song.

Leaders Club Highlights

Several girls have been eliminated from Leaders' Club this term because of their grades. Approximately ten have been dropped from the club since the beginning of the year, leaving twenty-three members in the club.

A few of the girls have learned the rules well and have become good referees. They will be very valuable in the coming basketball tournaments.

Awards Presented At G.A.A. Banquet

Many girls were going around school with emblems, numerals and A's on their sweaters the day after the G.A.A. banquet. If they are wearing a numeral they earned 500 points in order to receive it, if they are wearing an emblem they have earned 1,000 points, and if they have an "A" you'll know that they earned 1,500 points.

Girls Receive Numerals

The girls receiving numerals are, ninth grade: Irene Beach, Margaret Burgess, Lila Cook, Donna Garverick, Beverly Gutchall, Nancy Haupt, Colleen Peck, June Reining, Mary Anne Russell, Mildred Schmitzer, Dixie Scoles, Betsy Weller, Marjorie Wells.

Eighth grade: Diane Ackerman, Betty Altaffer, Betty Bauman, Barbara Blahnik, Mary Lou Boling, Peggy Brook, Pat Catlett, Christine Chokreff, Margie Goodman, Nancy Gutchall, Carolyn Kann, Shirley Noel, Sara Scott, Anne Shawber, Terry Stoodt, Thelma Stover, Barbara Perry, Norma Zahner.

Emblems Given

The girls receiving emblems are ninth grade: Barbara Conner, Betty DeLaney, Catherine Donley, Betty Dysart, Nancy Galbraith, Marian Haring, Janice Hoffmann, Elsie Kinkel, Barbara Koroknay, Virginia Marble, Lola Marth, Pat Massa, Colleen Messmore, Marianne Morrow, JoAnn McCombs, Beverly Phallen, Marjorie Pfeifer, Eleanor Reeder, Ruth Reining, Helen Rueckert, Vera Saleste, Grace Sheaf, Gerri Stall, Phyllis Stanton, Beverly VanCura.

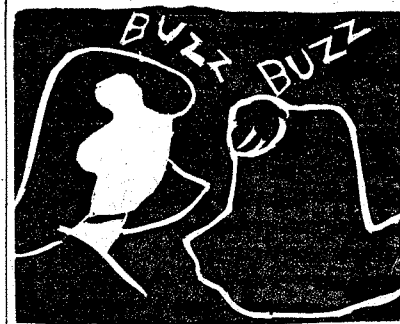

Eighth grade: Janet DeLaney, Shirley Jacobs, Jean McCarrick, and Jean Robinson.

Girls Choose Captains

To be chosen Captain of a basketball team you must be in G. A. A. They see that everybody has a place in games and they get 50 points for being Captain and it is a lot of fun. The seventh grade captains are as follows: 7B-3, Jean Hathaway, 7B-2, Janet Hardin; 7B-6 Patsy Moore; 7B-5 Marilyn Graham; 7B-8, Katherine Beatty; 7B-7, Grace Contant; 7B-1, Wanda Oyster; 7B-4, Marian Friend.

Eighth grade captains are: Bobcats—Betty Altaffer; Wolves, Thelma Stover; Flirts, Sara Scott; Bangs, Shirley Landon; Losers, Janet Delaney; Gangbusters, Jean McCarrick; Go-Getters, Shirley Jacobs.

Ninth grade captains are: Sad Sacks, Martha Jamison; Snickgoons, Marianne Morrow; Boomerangs, Martha Tracy; Spitfires, Betty Dysart; Gabby Gabs, Dixie Scoles; Oujii Boos, Maxine Sargent; Sharpshooters, Barbara Conner; Bobbysocks, Marjorie Pfeifer.

COACH'S CORNER

Since Easter vacation, track practice has begun in earnest. Every boy out for track has his own individual schedule to follow. A boy out for the 100-yard dash has different training to do than one out for the half-mile. A half-miler must work on stride and endurance. It doesn't take a particularly fast boy to be a good half-miler. For the 100-yard dash speed is stressed, because the race is short. A great deal of time is spent on the start because that is very important in a short race.

This year there should be a great deal of competition among our team. A good many seventh and eighth graders have shown in gym classes they must be considered.

Most boys are already in fairly good condition, so in the next few days we will go to the High School track to time every boy in his particular event. Any boy can be a good track man if he has the will-power to work hard and spend lots of time in practice. Track is no sport for a lazy boy.

Draw to Close Finish

Boys' homeroom basketball is coming to a finish now with thirteen teams of the three grades still in the running. The tournament is of an elimination type; as soon as a team loses two games it is out.

In the ninth grade there are three teams left, 9A7, 9A2, and 9A3. 9A3 and 9A7 have each lost a game, while 9A2 remains undefeated.

Still in the running in the eighth grade are 8A3, 8A5, 8A7, and 8A1. 8A5, 8A7, and 8A1 have lost one game, and 8A3 is undefeated.

Remaining in the seventh grade tournament are 7A8, 7A6, 7A5, 7A4, 7A3, and 7A1. 7A8 alone remains undefeated.

Twenty-two Athletes
Receive Varsity Letters

Twenty-two boys received letters for taking part in the school's varsity, football and basketball. Those who received letters for both football and basketball are Bernard Weaver, Junior Russell, Harry Osbun, Paul Ferguson, Bob McKown, Jackie Brandt, John Wilkerson, Tom McCollough and Sheldon Swank.

The boys who received football letters only are Jim Chamberlain, Shannon Talley, Rodney Blahnik, Albert Paetsch, Dick Haas, George Mochoskay, Kent Nieswander, John McCarrick, Donald Clark, Don Gross, Russel Cline, and Ed. Russell.

Miss Helen Widder's seventh grade math classes are making drawings with compasses. They are also studying the areas of figures.

Konsolation From Kumforting Kate

Dear Kumforting Kate,

I have trouble getting boys to like me. Many girls say I am very pretty but boys seem to avoid me. What shall I do?

Hateful Hattie

Dear Miss Hattie,

There is only one thing I can say you should do. Get some Holgate Dental Cream. It will take your breath away.

Dear Kumforting Kate,

I have been going steady with a boy for a month. Now there is another girl who likes him. What should I do to keep him in my clutches?

Bachelor Betty

My Dear Miss Betty,

After deep consideration I have decided upon this solution. Drag your rival down Main Street by her hair. If you think this is too drastic drop her off the Farmers' Bank Building.

Dear Kumforting Kate,

I am considered very popular in my school. I go with a very popular boy but every time we have a date, some admirers of mine follow us. This makes my boyfriend very angry. Your advice on what to do would be very helpful.

Popular Pat

Dear Pat

I suggest that you eat some garlic. That will be sure to rid you of these boys. Of course, I don't know if your boy-friend will be around much either, but you can try.

Dear Kumforting Kate,

I go with a boy who is quite a bit shorter than I am. Is there any thing you can suggest I should do?

Troubled Trudy

Dear Trudy,

Why don't you suggest to your boy-friend that he buy some stilts? (Martin's Hardware just received a shipment).

Dear Kumforting Kate,

My girl-friend is always losing her temper. She always apologizes afterwards, but is there anything I can do to cure her?

Maddening Mat

My Dear Mat,

When your girl-friend loses her temper just avoid her for a couple of days and she will find it in a hurry.

Latin Week Observed With Assembly, Display

"Roamin' with the Romans" was the name of the first part of the Latin assembly presented March 14, 1945, in the auditorium. This part of the program which was directed by Jim Goodman and Mary Ann Harry, took the audience to Hollywood where there were being prepared different scenes for a movie entitled "Roamin' with the Romans." The characters were Rodney Blahnik, master of ceremonies; Joan Freeland, narrator; Russell Cline, Lucius Julius Brutus; Lee Balyeat, Publius Cornelius Scipio Africanus; Robert Bush, Cato; Dave Carto, Echo; Betty Dysart, Narcisus; Dick Haas, Cicero; Jim Goodman, Caesar; and Harold Osborn, Hollywood director.

JoAnn McCombs was the director of the second part of the assembly which illustrated Latin words and their derivatives. Shannon Talley and Nancy Osburn enacted a scene showing a Roman citizen and an American girl telling the advantages of Latin. Harriet Lutz played the part of Duco, the mother of Production—David Bell, Conductor—Jerry Hayes and Induce—Hunt Brown. Audio was played by Shelly Swank who told some words that came from his Latin name. One word was Audition, played by Vera Saleste. The program ended with the Ninth Grade Girls' Glee Club singing two songs, "Ave Maria" and "Guademas Igitur" in Latin.

The Latin students have been reviewing the verbs and their tenses and are starting to learn fourth conjugation. Besides taking vocabulary and chapter tests they are working for their credit points.

ENGLISH CLASSES FINISH SCRAPBOOKS

Ninth grade English classes of Miss Doris Doggett have completed their study of Lady of the Lake and their scrapbooks on Scotland exemplifying habits, customs, religion and government of the Scottish people. As special assignments on the story of Lady of the Lake some of the students included in their scrap books sceneries, descriptive phrases, summaries of the cantos and pictures describing scenes and characters of the story.

Miss Edith Beck's seventh grade classes are studying word usage, parts of speech and sentence structure.

Eighth grade classes of Miss Margaret Wheeler are writing business letters.

Miss Alice Kirkwood's ninth grade classes are reading "A Midsummer Night's Dream." Her eighth grade English classes wrote friendly letters and are having regular summer study.

English classes of Miss Elena Percy are writing letters and studying conversation.

Miss Elaine Grahl's seventh grade classes have finished dictionary study and are doing outlining and composition work.

Ninth grade English classes of Miss Anita Strauch have finished "A Midsummer Night's Dream," and are writing essays on Shakespeare.

CONSTITUTION STUDIED

When Mr. Ensil McNabb was asked what his history classes are doing now, he replied, "My second and fifth period classes have been studying the Constitution of the United States. The aim of this study is to acquaint the students with the freedoms and the privileges that are his because of the Constitution. It is further hoped that a desire may be created to keep the American way of life. The students (most of them) recently satisfactorily passed a test on the Constitution.

We plan to study the rise of the factory system and problems created by it. We shall consider those problems which have been solved, those only partly solved, and many that have not heretofore been considered. This study will probably take about three weeks."

In Miss Margaret Wheeler's history classes, the Civil War is being studied. Also their paper "Every Week" is read and reports are made.

In Mr. Robert Davis' history classes quotations are being learned. These are from the Gettysburg Address, the American's Creed, the Declaration of Independence, and the Preamble to the Constitution.

learning to look at an answer and tell what figures were multiplied together to get that product. They also plan to study algebraic equations containing fractions.

Mrs. Brune's seventh grade math classes are working on designs and afterwards will study areas and volumes.

Mr. William Lantz's general math classes are studying how to read various kinds of meters.

TEACHERS SPEND VACATION IN WORK AND PLEASURE

Most of Appleseed's women teachers did their spring housecleaning during vacation and the men teachers worked in their yards. However, a few teachers visited various places. The following are what some of the teachers did:

Mr. W. B. Lantz visited friends in Wooster, Ohio.

Miss Alice Kirkwood went to Cleveland for a short visit. She also visited the school where she used to teach in Painesville.

Mr. J. J. Thoms visited in Perysville and Loudonville.

Mr. Ensil McNabb went to Gambier, Ohio.

Miss Leona Prosser spent her vacation in Miami, Florida.

CAFETERIA NEWS

Down the cafeteria lines pass several hundred boys and girls with trays of food that look good and are full of energy and pep. It would convince the most doubtful that our Americans are eating the right way.

But—have you seen the trays after lunch? Do our students practice the "clean plate" idea? Is the milk all gone or is there an inch in the bottom of the bottle to be thrown away? Have they eaten all the potato—have they heard that potatoes are scarce and that it is not patriotic to waste even one bite of potato?

Our ice cream is so good! The dairies are trying to be extra nice to the schools. They feel that boys and girls should have lots of milk and ice cream; they have often limited the drugstores in order to furnish us the ice cream. Is it fair then to leave this nutritious food—this good ice cream—to be thrown away?

And butter is scarce and takes so many points—ask your mother if butter is not more precious than jewels.

We ask you to buy only the food you will eat. We know that you will realize that food must not be wasted during these war days. Every school boy and girl can help the war effort by stopping the food waste.

Wouldn't It Be Queer

school. I guess it just isn't possible to have such things. What would you think about a school where dogs were regular students? It would really be funny, I think!

Wouldn't it be odd to see dogs going from class room to class room walking on two legs, wearing either shirts or trousers, and some even wearing spectacles? I suppose the male dogs would wear bow ties like Frank Sinatra's and the female dogs would have bow ribbons pinned neatly on their heads.

Seeing dogs dancing very gayly in the gym at noon would also be queer. One place they wouldn't be safe would be in the cafeteria line—they would simply be demolished by some of the rough human beings.

As eager as the dogs always are to get into the school building, you'd think, wouldn't you, that they're interested in getting an education, too.
