Press Wins High Rating in First Contest Entered

"The Appleseed Press," along with two other school papers of Mansfield, was selected on March 15 as a distinguished award winner.

These were chosen from among competitors from all parts of the country in the annual scholastic press contest sponsored by Columbia University's Scholastic Press Association in New York City.

"The Appleseed Press" won red ribbon honors in its division for second place. Johnny Appleseed competed with schools with enrollment of 700 or less; John Simpson, with those of 701 to 1200.

"The John Simpson Times" of John Simpson Junior High School was awarded a blue ribbon for first place in the division for junior high school printed newspapers.

"The Spy" of Hedges grade school won second place red ribbon for news formation of mimeographed papers in the elementary division.

"The Appleseed Press" also won the coveted all-Columbian award for advertising in their class, which is a very great honor.

Students See Lion Land Movie

Gustave Grahn and his "In Lion Land with the Movie Camera" entertained the students of Appleseed in an assembly, Tuesday, April 8th.

His interesting description and photography held the audience's attention with various pictures of rhinoceros, lions, crocodiles and gazelles.

He also showed pictures illustrating daily lives of natives, including a wedding ceremony.

Adding to the beauty of the pictures were scenes of mountains, waterfalls and vegetation.

Mr. Grahn was born in Sweden and in early life, wanderlust sought him bringing him to America. There, between getting a higher education, he traveled and photography became his natural hobby, even to the extent of having his own private laboratory.

Easter Brings Thoughts Of Beauty and Happiness

By MARILYN LARSON

The quietness of Easter,
On an early Sunday morn,
Is like a day of restfulness
In this world of ours, so torn.

It brings out nature's beauty,
With a cry that all can hear,
Sung by the wind and rising buds,
"Spring is here, Spring is here!"

The flowers now are opened;
The leaves are sprouting green.
And greatness of love surrounds us
When the day of Easter is seen.

And when on Easter morning,
You go to church to pray
Be thankful you're Americans
To greet this happy day.

Pan-American Day Is Celebrated By Geography Classes

The seventh grade geography classes planned a program to celebrate Pan American Union Day and presented it yesterday, April 10, with appropriate exercises. The aim of the committee was to create a better understanding between the twenty-one republics of the Western Hemisphere.

From this understanding, it was hoped that there might develop a greater trade, closer friendship and lasting peace. The spirit of "The Christ of the Andes" was prevailed throughout the program.

Jean Curry modeled a miniature of "The Christ of the Andes" in clay. Ernest Pennell and Richard Orr were in charge of the maps, graphs, and statistics. Verna Beth Graham was in charge of the Mexican and pecan candy.

The main feature of the celebration was the display of the flags of the twenty-one republics in the union. Other items of the celebration were...

Band Parents Sponsor Show

Will Buy Band Uniforms;
Select Drum Majors

The Johnny Appleseed Junior High School Band and parents met for a covered-dish dinner April 1 in the cafeteria. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by Mr. McCready and approved. Mr. Beelman talked about the band uniforms and ways to pay for them. Tickets were then put on sale for the Melody Jubilee, sponsored by the Band Mothers Club to raise money for the uniforms. Donations were also accepted.

Mr. Holcombe has announced that the Johnny Appleseed band uniforms consist of a three-quarter length maroon cape trimmed in gold with the lining in gold. The cap is an over-seas cap in maroon trimmed in gold with gold letters spelling J. A. J. To complete the uniform, there will be white duck trousers and white shoes. Later,...

Combined Staffs Hear Speaker At Banquet

Medals Are Awarded To Outstanding Members

The first annual combined staff banquet was April 4, 1941, at the Appleseed cafeteria with one-hundred fifteen members and guests present. A main feature was a talk by Mr. R. D. Lindsay of the Mansfield News-Journal.

Other highlights of the evening came when Mr. Neff and Miss Shaffer presented medals and certificates to the leading staff members for their work during the past year. Awards to the editorial staff members were based on the number of column inches that each member had printed in the issues of the paper this year. Awards to the business staff members were made on the basis of the amount of advertising each had sold.

Medals were presented to the

ART STUDENTS PLAN MODELS AND MURALS

Art students at the present are working on house plans. These are drawn with a front view of the house and the inside floor plans, all to scale. Later, the plans will be used to make models.

Others are working on a mural, in the work room, which shows the various activities of the school.

A project just completed were safety posters which were entered in a poster contest.

V. Piano Solo—Anne Jeannette Klinger, "Concerto in G Minor" (first movement) by Mendelssohn, accompanied by the orchestra.

VI. Orchestra—Selections from "Faust" by Gounod.

EVERYBODY Likes Pictures!

MOM and pop, and every member of the average American family, prefer news and feature stories in picture form. Pictures "read" easy. They gain attention, tell the story at a glance. A child can understand their message, and old folks who balk at printing, catch a picture's meaning without discomfort.

Art Classes Work On Unique Project

Miss Herring's 9th grade art classes are working out a unit of tile panels. A tile panel for the window sill in Room 217 (the art room) is being made.

Another panel is being worked in correlation with the industrial arts department. The boys in the vocational department are making a table and the ninth grade classes are making a tile top for the table.

The reports were first made about such topics as the "History of Pottery in the United States," "The Pottery Industry in the State of Ohio," "The History of Tiles and the Designing of Pottery."

The pupils first made several designs and from these one of each pupil's was selected which would fit well with the others chosen.

Methods of decorating tiles were then discussed and the class selected the method most appropriate to be used with the design which they had selected.

After the pupils have completed the decoration of the tiles, they will be fired in the kiln.

After the tiles have been fired, the class will learn to make glazes. They will use these glazes on their tiles after which the tiles are to be fired again.

They will then be cemented into panels in the correct size for the window sill and the table top.

'Larcher Duo' Gives Show In Assembly

On Wednesday, March 26, students of Johnny Appleseed were entertained at assembly by a variety musical and dramatic program presented by Miss Bessie Larcher and Mr. Russel Maginnis.

The "Larcher Duo" began their program with several musical se-

NEW CLUB EXHIBITS AND JUDGES MODELS

On March 21, the Cadet Airplane Club opened an exhibit to all members and people who are interested in airplanes. It was held in the drama room. There were an estimated 35 planes, autos, gliders, boats and trains on exhibit. The following people received prizes in the contest:

First prize, John Colby, airplane; first prize, Junior Kilgore, airplane; second prize, Milton Kessie, airplane; second prize, Bud Crum, airplane; third prize, Junior Elsasser, airplane; third prize, David Miller, airplane; first prize, John Colby, glider; first prize, Raymond Kiraly, boat; first prize, Tony Korokney, auto; second prize, Raymond Kiraly, auto.

Mr. Rohleder, Mr. Peat and Mr. Clouse acted as judges. The adviser is Mr. John J. Thoms.

Later in the spring, the club will take an excursion out to the airport.

lections, Mr. Maginnis at the piano and Miss Larcher at the drums.

Following this, Miss Larcher gave a reading, portraying an old lady.

Mr. Maginnis, dressed in native costume, then gave several gypsy numbers on the accordion. Miss Larcher joined him, also in costume, and together they played several more selections.

They concluded the program by singing "He's My Uncle."

Why Put Gum In Fountains?

By ANNA MARIE FISCHER

Did you ever go to the drinking fountain to get a drink and find gum or paper there? It is rather unappetizing, isn't it? But some people insist on placing them there when a perfectly good waste basket is in every room and even in the halls.

Let's try to be more careful next time. If you want to get rid of gum or paper, put it in the waste basket; that's where it belongs.

Take Care Of Library Books

By ANNE FORD

Discouraging reports have been coming in about how the books in the library are badly marked.

There is no excuse for this. Just because there are many new books coming in is no reason everyone should write in them; rather it is a good reason why we should help to keep them in proper condition.

I know we would all hate to have our new books taken away from us, so let's co-operate in keeping them nice!

Debates Demonstrate Democracy

By DOT ARLIN

The people of the United States believe in a democracy. If this democracy is to be maintained, the parents and teachers should encourage their children and pupils to believe in it. This may be done by a debate. In the schools if a debate is held, the pupils can speak their minds about a subject and at the same time be learning more about their country and government.

Recently, a debate was held in the Social Science classes of this school. The debate was about the Lend-Lease Bill. The pupils enjoyed the debate and want more of them.

 "A Little Close Harmony"—what is needed in Bob Fox's orchestra. (No offense.)
 "Lost in Meditation"—Marilyn Fleming.
 "I Give You My Word"—says Edgar Daugherty.
 "Oh How I Hate to Get Up in the Morning"—isn't it the truth?
 "Posin'"—in art class.
 "Start Jumpin'"—says Miss Voll to Nancy Leonard.
 "Swing Along with Me"—says Bill Nixon.

Our Bunny Wonders

If everyone likes Dorothy Bogan's hair style as well as HE does?

If cardigans will ever go out of style?

If girls will get as excited over boys' track as they did over football and basketball?

Where Peggy Foltz gets all her clever ideas for her column "Fads" which has received so many compliments from all?

If Mary Norton was nervous introducing the orchestra down at Simpson?

If everyone knows when a girls wears a pink bow it means "I want to be kissed"?

If Edgar Daugherty ever gets to school on time?

If pupils like wading through the mud on Cline Avenue?

If Miss Moser ever gets disgusted with her Algebra class? (Miss Moser, please don't answer.)

When girls say "I've got a date with a gate" who the gate is?

How Myron Kolish likes Appleseed?—better than Simpson, or should we say as well as?

If anyone laughed as hard as Jane Sneering and Ann Gilbert when Alberta Gerhart fell down in the lobby?

Why Virginia Keister can't keep quiet in assemblies?

The Easter Egg Muses

About Jearald Zeller and his "six girls."
 About the staff party!

About all the new Easter outfits. (Even the boys are getting dressed up!)

If we'll be able to stand it until June.

If some people have spring fever—or is it love?

If the teachers catch on to the industriousness of the eighth graders during the latter half of the year! (Little do they know.)

What it's like to be a ninth grader.

Who'll be the winner in the American League this year.

How many Appleseeders believe in the Easter Bunny.

Jim of the Press — by Graham Dean. This is a career book dealing with newspaper work. It is an old book, but comes to the library with high recommendations, and should prove interesting reading.

Buttonwood Island — by Lavinia Davis. If you like a good horse story and also a good mystery story, "Buttonwood Island" fills the order for it is an exciting story of both.

Watch That Pass — by Ralph Henry Barbour. This is another typical football book, but Barbour's exciting style makes it a good story.

A Son of the First Boy — by Adelaide Arnold. An Indian boy who lives in Southern California and is "brave, sensitive, and proud of his race." With his prize winning picture, he realizes he had far outlived his Indian heritage.

Shaggy, the Horse from Wyoming — by Russell Gordon Carter. This is a simple horse story which will be good for slow readers. It has large type and is not a very big book.

First Man: "Do you always allow your wife to have the last word?"

Second Man: "How should I know, she hasn't come to it yet."

Orchids to the person who can find out what M. A. T. stands for. Dandelions to balloons in the gym.

Orchids to Jean Rapp and her coolots.

Dandelions to Bill Roush and his saying "She loves me the sixth period and hates me the seventh."

Orchids to Barbara Milinger and her monogrammed socks.

Dandelions to Sheldon Shaffer and his technique of scratching.

Orchids to the health lecture on March 27.

Dandelions to Myron Kalish for coming to class a half hour late.

Orchids to Bill (Lefty) Huntsman and his strength.

Dandelions to Bob Willis for breaking his glasses three times in two months.

Orchids to the Madison Theater balcony.

China Dogs And Perfume Bottles Displayed In Case

The exhibit in the trophy case this month was put in by Jane Gibbs and Dolores Faust.

Jane Gibbs has in her collection 150 China dogs which she has been saving for several years and which she collected from all over the world.

Dolores Faust has in her collection 100 perfume bottles of all shapes, forms and sizes. She also has been saving them for several years.

This 'N' That

By YE HOO and DEE

Ye Hoo and Dee were snooping around the halls and have found some very interesting facts about students in dear old Appleseed.

Ye Hoo and Dee wonder why so many ninth grade students fall off their chairs in Science class. Is it to get a better view of Mr. Huber or the Home Ec. room? They also wonder how Lloyd Shawber got the name "Bubby;" hmm-m-m sisters do tell. . . . We wonder if Carol Hosler's daily exercise is pushing cars out of mud holes (confess Carol). . . . We can't understand why Murray Swihart goes out for such pale colors.

Ye Hoo and Dee can't imagine why Mr. Correll doesn't go on the stage after his marvelous imitation of Robinhood in the principal's office. (No offense.) . . . We have a wonderful solution for Mr. Davis' problem on students running through the hall. Why not donate roller skates to the student body? (What about it, Mr. Davis?)

. . . We think another good idea would be elevators from one floor to the other for tired students. Shame there aren't three floors. . . . We wonder if Miss Prosser ever gets tired telling certain pupils to be quiet in the library. (Not mentioning any names.)

If anyone on the evening of March 5 saw ghosts, it wasn't Halloween, it was just the ninth grade Latin classes going to the Roman Banquet dressed as Romans. . . . If Myron Kalish minded leaving that "wonderful" school. (Do we mean it?) . . . Is Bob Pearson in the habit of going through the halls sitting down? We can't figure it out. (Can you?) . . . Is Bill Nixon a jitterbug? (Sometimes we wonder.)

Committee Chooses Classroom Movies

A committee of teachers made up of Mr. Huber, chairman, Mr. Davis and Mr. Correll have been compiling a schedule for educational films to be shown next year.

The subjects which will have the majority of the films are: Social Science, Geography, and History, while other subjects will have a few pictures engaged. The explanation for the uneven distribution is that there are fewer films made on some subjects such as Literature, Art, English, and so forth, than on the other four major studies.

The movies will be shown in the several rooms that are equipped with opaque blinds. For the teachers not having this type of shade, some other room will be available.

Most of the films come from the Ohio State Department of Visual Education at Columbus.

About two-thirds of these will be talkies, with the remainder being silent films.

Each section will see the films separately so as to get the teachers' full explanations.

The schedule is almost completed for next year with at least one movie billed for almost every day.

John Them, Senior High's head drum major, selected the following drum majors: Betty Burke, head drum major; Eleanora Young and David Sweet, assistants.

The drum major's uniform is maroon, trimmed in gold, the regulation West Point uniform. The hat is the shocke hat with gold plume. The assistants are in all-white with maroon and gold sashes.

The group then assembled in the gymnasium where they participated in sports, including badminton, giant volleyball, basketball and ping-pong, under the direction of Mr. Cameron and Miss Garner.

Jones: "My wife's gone to the West Indies."

Smith: "Jamaica?"

Jones: "No, she wanted to go."

Social Science Classes Conduct First Debate

The two Social Science classes had debates on March 26 and March 27. The purpose of the debates was for the pupils to study and get better acquainted with current events and news of the day.

On March 26, the 1st period Social Science class had their debate. Members of the affirmative were David Twitchell, Roberta Lemley and Arlene Koon. Members of the negative were Jack Brollier, Olive Wendall and Janice MacMichael.

The class voted 32 to 15 for the affirmative and the judges Mr. Correll and Miss Seybold, gave the decision to the negative.

On March 27, the 5th period Social Science class had their debate. Those on the affirmative were Mary Lou Scanlon and Shirley Rankin. Those on the negative were Mary Alice Spring, Jack Lautsbaugh and Juanita Hillman.

The audience voted unanimously for the affirmative. The judges, Mr. Correll and Mr. Hostetler, gave the decision to the affirmative.

The class studied the Congressional Record for six weeks. They debated on the question, "Resolved that the Aid to Britain Bill for the Defense of the United States and Other Purposes is Desirable."

He: "Who spilled mustard on this waffle?"

She (tearfully): "Oh, John, my first lemon pie!"

Fads and Fashions

By PEGGY FOLTZ

For the Easter parade, fashion takes its inspiration from the flag, the Army, and Navy, and the Far West; it's an all-American year.

Eagle pins and eagle lapel gadgets are the rage. You must wear one on your suit, coat or cape this spring.

There's possibly no better way to make a dramatic entry into spring than by stepping out in a cape ensemble. If you have a flare for capes, this is your year. The cape influence is naturally a direct outcome of the present war and our own defense program, and it promises to be a very big fashion.

Buttoned on a fitted jacket of red, blue, and grey plaid, topping a flared skirt of grey wool, is a tailored block-shouldered cape with revers of plaid matching both jacket and shoulder purse.

Frankly, I think the new coat styles are the best yet this spring! They are full of tricky ideas that will make you feel really "spring-ish"! A direct steal from army uniforms is an officer's coat in covert twill—so smart and practical and will command your inspection.

There's no fashion more beloved by the school crowd than the polo coat. Girls love its good looking casual style and find it ideal over school dresses, sweaters, and skirts.

Latin Students Arrange
And Attend Unique Banquet

A Roman banquet was given by the Latin students of Miss Strauch on Wednesday, March 5, at 5:00 o'clock, or the eleventh hour, in the Johnny Appleseed cafeteria. The students were dressed according to their ranks in Roman costumes made by themselves and the tables were placed in Roman style. The host and hostess were John Porter and Mary Norton.

The menus were in Latin and the meal included typical Roman foods determined by a study of Gay, colorful plaid cotton frocks and frocks and suits of plaid wool for school wear are very practical. First-class for a teen-age lass is a green cotton plaid frock, with a simulated bolero flaring out over a crisp white pique blouse with tiny white collar and cuffs outlined in faggotting. A tailored plaid bow at the neck matches the sash bow tied at the waistline of the full skirt.

Bows, large and small. You've loved them tucked in your curls, but now you'll love them more as ready-made-pick-me-ups for your shoes, gloves, and sweaters.

It wouldn't be spring without a robin, and it wouldn't be spring without a classic cardigan in this season's colors, petal pink, hyacinth blue, jonquil yellow, crocus white, and champagne.

Your Easter outfit can be as changeable as your moods with several sets of accessories. Today, they make or break an ensemble.

descriptions of Roman dinners. Following the phrase, "Ab avo usque ad mala," corresponding to our "From soup to nuts," but meaning "From eggs to apples," the first course included eggs and the last included apples.

After an offering to the household gods, Lares and Penates, by the host and hostess, the program was as follows:

Vocal solo, "Integer Vitae" by George Lake; trumpet solo, "Gaudemus Igitur" by James Smith, accompanied by Katherine Schaller; piano solo, "Nos Tres" by Jack Laughtsbaugh; main speech by Miss Ruth Dunham, Latin teacher at Senior High, "Every Day Life of a Roman Boy and Girl; final, "America," by the entire group.

The committee chairmen were: Carol Hosler, decorations; Mary Norton, place cards; Olive Wendell, tables; Katherine Ann Schaffer, exhibits; Hugh Eyerly, program; Gene Foster, personnel; Robert Soulen, finance.

The guests were Miss Dunham, Senior High School; Miss Margaret Wheeler, Miss Louise Seybold, Miss Dortha Shaffer, and Mr. Brooks Huber of the Appleseed faculty.

P.-T. A. News

An interested audience attended the P.-T. A. show on February 25, which was given by the Parent-Teacher Association for the purpose of raising money to pay for the new visual education equipment for our school.

The program consisted of numbers given by the orchestra, brass quartette, reed quartette, octet, violin solo, string trio and a movie, "The Hoosier Schoolboy," starring Mickey Rooney. Anna Marie Fischer was the student announcer.

A trophy was given to Mr. Correll's home room, 214, for selling the most tickets to the performance. A contest was held in the school with all the home rooms competing and Mr. Correll's winning. Joan Kullman was the sales manager of 214.

The Johnny Appleseed Parent-Teacher Association met February 27. A business meeting and program was held. One hundred and forty-three dollars was made on the P.-T. A. show which was held February 25, to help pay for the visual education equipment.

The Wagon Tongue

By BOB BLACK

During some of the noon hours the students have been entertained with the "eliminating matches" of the boxing tournament. Some of these matches are very exciting as the Given-Gassaway fight proved. Another thriller was the Lowell Ford-David Stull bout. A few of these fighters may go on as Leonard Wadell did. We hope so. As I was talking to the Coach the other day, he said, "If these matches are any indication of the caliber of fights to be held at the 'Intramural Round-up, I wouldn't miss them.'"

x x x

Ping! ping! go the badminton rackets as fifty-four ninth grade boys fight it out for the badminton championship. The boys play in E.C.A. periods and after school. The gym floor has room for three courts, so three games are going on at one time.

x x x

The ninth grade varsity proved too much for the male sex of the faculty. Although they tried hard they could not keep up with the younger generation. They were defeated 19-10. The teachers have the upper hand in the classroom, but the students get back at them on the basketball court.

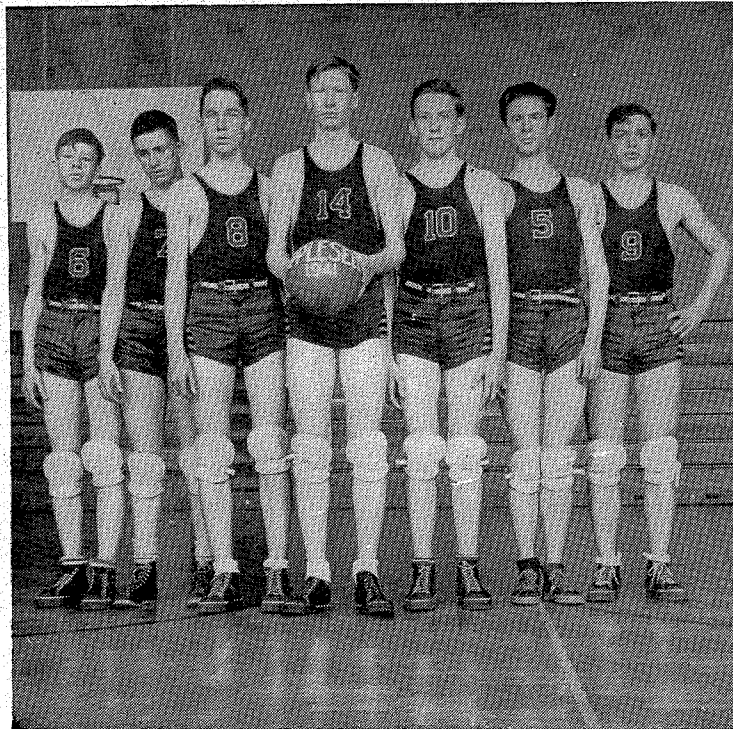

x x x

If a visitor walked in our corridor one day, he would know Appleseed had school spirit because he would see the school seal on many boys' and girls' sweaters. The seal is gold on a maroon background. Also many students have the school pins which are maroon and gold buttons with the words, "Johnny Appleseed" on them and two ribbons, one maroon and one gold hanging down with a rabbit's foot attached.

x x x

If you see boys and girls limping out of gym class, you will know they have been playing "Chinese Soccer" or "Giant Volleyball." The ball used is a huge inflated sphere. In "Chinese Soccer" the participant does the "spider walk" and is allowed to use only his feet and head to push or kick the ball. If he touches it with his hands, it is a point for the other side. There are outside lines and goal lines and the object is to get the ball over the opposing team's goal.

Pioneer Basketball Varsity

Round-Up Will Be Big Affair

360 Students Will Participate In First Intramural Round-Up

Johnny Appleseed will have its first annual Intramural Round-Up on the evenings of April 23 and April 25. Both boys and girls will be included on the program. During the evening the championship basketball teams of each grade will play the all-stars.

In the seventh grade, 7A-6 will play the seventh grade all-stars. 8A-7, the eighth grade champions, will play the eighth grade all-stars and in the ninth grade, 9A-3 will be the opponents of the all-stars of the ninth grade.

Another outstanding feature of the evening will be the boys' and girls' badminton finals. The badminton tournament was for the ninth grade only.

The final boxing contestants of each class will also perform.

The round-up of the ping-pong and shuffleboard tournaments will be held on this evening.

Forty to fifty boys will give a demonstration of the giant volleyball and Chinese soccer.

Everything will be the "real McCoy" except the tumbling, which will be the only rehearsed part of the program. Altogether there will be about 260 boys and 100 girls in the round-up.

7A-6, 8A-7, 9A-3 Are Chosen Champs

March 25 marked the end of basketball as the intramural basketball awards were given.

A total of 167 seventh, eighth, and ninth grade boys took part in the tournament.

The winners of the seventh grade were 7A-6. They defeated 7A-3. It was 7A-3's first defeat in nine games.

The players of 7A-6 are: Stuckey, Rowe, Marchant, Kocial, Crouse, and Berry. The all-stars were Gernhardt, Tallman, Glasscock, Adams, Hosler and McCarrick.

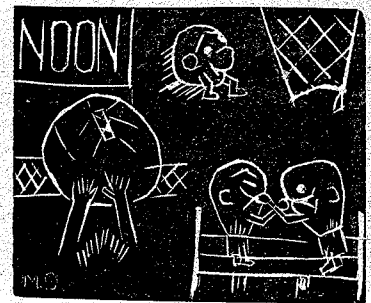

8A-7 were the winners in the eighth grade with Holmes, Bishop, Morrison, Beckler, and Hartig on their team. The all-stars were Shaffer, Wendell, Shriver, Haley, Weaver, Swihart, and Werner.

The ninth grade champions were 9A-3, who had Pfahler, Daugherty, Cupp, Wappner, and Laughtsbaugh. The all-stars were Calderhead, Meeting, Reese, D. Miller, F. Miller, Huntsman, and Knapp. All of these boys will play at the Round-up.

In all the preliminary games of all the tournaments there was an aggregate of 1250 students.

The different departments, such as Home Economics, Industrial Arts, General Science, Hobbies, Art, will also display their work.

Noon Activities

Most of the noon periods have been spent on the boxing tournament. The finals of this tournament will be held at the annual Athletic Night. The contestants will be as follows:

85-Miller vs Gassaway
95-McCarrick vs. Werner
105-C. Miller vs Devore
125-Gassaway vs. Bushman.
135-Heston vs. Beckel
145-L. Morehead vs. Davis.

Bob Morehead and Frank Miller are undisputed champions.

* * *

Several times at noon we danced to Bob Foxes' band and once to a phonograph. We enjoyed these dances very much and hope there will be more of them.

Letters Awarded During Assembly

At an assembly on March 25, the Appleseed basketball team received their maroon and gold letters from Coach Cameron.

Letters were awarded to the following: Andy Lamoreux, captain; Ned Brunk, Bob Morehead, Douglas Myers, Gene Foster, Bob Miller and Bill Roush.

The eighth graders receiving letters and who will be back next year are: Leslie Myers, Lee Morehead, Jerry Zeller, Charles Sauder, Frank Beckel and Bob Hall. Paul Johnson, who was on Appleseed's team most of the season, but now goes to Simpson, also received a letter.

The managers who received awards were Bill Huntsman, Albert Etzel, and Donald Johnson.

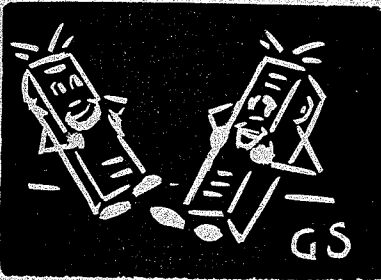

The final total of the points made, attempts and percentage of the team's highest boys are as follows:

	M.	A.	Pct.
A. Lamoreux	70	189	.368
F. Beckel	12	35	.343
B. Miller	15	46	.327
J. Zeller	19	59	.331
B. Hall	7	23	.304
C. Sauder	10	33	.303
N. Brunk	17	67	.254
G. Foster	14	56	.250
L. Myers	33	137	.241
B. Roush	10	50	.200

The complete squad made 305 baskets, attempted 1262 and had a percentage of .247.

Locker Laughs

By JANICE SNIDER

Watch out for that Applesseed photographer! He is liable to snap a picture at any time, especially while someone is playing some game in the gym and is least expecting to be photographed.

x x x

Untidy locker rooms are most annoying. When girls are careless about their belongings, they may become soiled or even lost, so try to keep your clothes in your locker with the lock on it.

x x x

1-2-3-Bend, 1-2-3-Bend, may be heard in the locker rooms any day now when everyone is getting ready for Athletic Nights, April 23 and 25.

x x x

In an assembly on March 25 the cheerleaders were awarded their emblems. They were megaphones with an A on them. Those who received them were Anne Ford, Jean Johnson, Berton Lawrentz, Bud Crum, Bill Ingram, Mary Bushnell, Shirley Boock and Anna Marie Fischer.

x x x

The girls who received the ten highest scores in the basketball Intramural Tournament are:

Janice Snider, 63; Betty Pugh, 59; Mary Bushnell, 46; Connie Roelof, 40; Anna Marie Fischer, 34; Betty Glenn, 32; Martha Koroknay, 29; Margaret Walery, 20; Katherine Schaller, 18; Marilyn Larson, 18.

Lady (to druggist): "I want a box of canine pills."

Druggist: "What's the matter with the dog."

Lady (indignantly): "I'll have you know my husband is a perfect gentleman."

Barber: "Your hair needs cutting badly, sir."

Customer: "I don't agree with you. It needs cutting nicely this time. You cut it badly the last time I was here."

Girls Win Honorary Places On Intramural Teams

The ninth grade girls' honorary basketball and eighth grade hit pin baseball teams were selected on a basis of teamwork, good sportsmanship, co-operation, and reporting for games. They are as follows:

Basketball

Maroon—Janice Snider, f., Captain; Mary Bushnell, f.; Anna Marie Fischer, f.; Margaret Walery, f.; Martha Koroknay, g.; Carol Hosler, g.; Shirley Rankin, g.; Georgia Mae Bogan, g.

Classes Play And Study Various Games

The girls' health and physical education classes are engaged in various activities. The seventh grade gym classes are tumbling. The eighth and ninth grade gym classes are playing ping pong, badminton, and shuffleboard. These are all intramural tournaments.

The health classes are all engaged in the same things, that is, listing all sports, their origin, number on team, season played, outstanding players, equipment, rules of the game, terms used in the game, outstanding events, and the date when they were introduced. This helps them to understand more games, their method of playing, and their importance to us.

Every Student Engages in Physical Education Program

The physical educational department of Johnny Appleseed, one of the most complete and popular divisions of our school, plays an important part in the training and physical well-being of every student who attends Johnny Appleseed.

Both boys and girls learn the principles of and compete in various sports. The intramural program is the most important of the physical education curriculum. Since all pupils participate, it far exceeds inter-scholastic competition as to student value.

Many sports are included in this year's intramural program and tournaments. They are basketball, ping-pong, shuffle board, horseshoes, badminton and hit pin baseball. These tournaments are over and the finals will be played off Round-up nights, April 23rd and 25th.

The girl's basketball champions are the Shooting Stars, having lost no games.

The hit pin baseball champions are 7A-2.

Various sports which are now beginning for spring intramural program are baseball, tumbling and boxing.

The use of the gym is divided equally. The boys and girls have separate days for classes and activities. Boys' days in the gym are Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday mornings. There are twelve boys' gym classes which are conducted by Coach Cameron. Miss Garner, girls' advisor, also has twelve health and twelve gyn classes.

The equipment is divided between boys and girls. From the 320 girls all but 16 participated in this year's intramural tournaments.

In the boys' basketball 167 — 7th, 8th, and 9th grade boys participated.

The winners in this intramural basketball are 7A6, 8A7 and 9A3.

The all-stars were chosen from various rooms.

The two finalists in ping-pong are Bill Roush and Bob Hale. They will play at the Round-up.

The four finalists in badminton are Ned Brunk, Hugh Eyerly, Pete Wappner, and George Knackstedt. Of these, two will play at the Round-up.

STATE HEALTH OFFICIAL TALKS TO OUR SCHOOL

Dr. Roy C. Rehder, Mansfield health officer, introduced Mr. Crombie, state officer of health, of Columbus, to our audience Wednesday, March 26, in a student assembly.

The main topic of Mr. Crombie's talk was "Friendship." He told of types of friends that boys and girls of high school age should choose—healthy, clean and of the same age.

He also talked about "puppy love" and dating and many of the problems of junior high school age boys and girls.

Customer: "May I try on that suit in the window?"

Clerk: "We'd much rather you would use the dressing room."

Simpson Scores Second Win

An estimated 1200 saw the Simpson Bulldogs win a hard fought decision over the Appleseed Pioneers 34-26 on March 6 at the Appleseed gymnasium.

With the score tied 25-25 at the end of the third quarter, Baker led the Bulldogs to victory by scoring 6 of the 9 points made in the final chapter. Appleseed got off to a slow start with 5 points to Simpson's 9 in the first quarter although in the second period the Pioneers added 13 points to their score while the Bulldogs were adding 11.

Both teams fought hard and good sportsmanship was apparent during the whole game.

Andy Lamoreux led the Pioneers with 11 points, while Baker was high scorer for the Bulldogs with 12.

In the game between the two reserve teams, the Simpsonites defeated the Appleseeders by a last minute rally, 27-31.

A small boy was hurrying to school, and as he hurried he prayed: "Dear God, don't let me be late . . . Please God." Then he happened to stumble and said, "You don't have to shove."

Senior High Student Urges Boys to Consider Shop Course

At Senior High School, the boys of the Vocational Club wrote an editorial on shop work to interest some ninth grade boys in this course since it will soon be time for pupils to sign up for next year's studies.

We feel this article deserves a spot in our paper, so we present some of it from the copy we received from the Vocational Department at Senior High School.

By ROBERT GASS

How many of you boys are interested in machinery, or anything that is mechanical? I'll bet there isn't one of you boys who isn't! How many of you boys would like to be reasonably sure that you will have a job when you graduate—and be skilled labor, too, instead and plays for the A Capella Choir.

KITTY BUSHNELL—A person who is always getting into trouble. She's probably the only girl that knows how to whistle through her nose. If you hear a faint whistle in study hall, it will be Kitty.

of ending up on the WPA?

Well, if you take the Vocational Course when you get to Senior High, you can do all this and more. You will have your choice of these shops: the Electric, the Machine, and the Auto. You will have shop one half of the day and classes the other half. There you have actual shop practice in the shop all morning or afternoon.

When you are in your senior year you can work a week in a shop downtown, and then go to school for a week—just like getting paid for coming to school. Did you know that 95 per cent of the seniors of the Vocational Department are working now? Well, it's a fact that can be proved very readily.

And here is something else that should appeal to all of you fellows who like sports. There is competition between the shops. When each sport is in season, the groups compete against one another. The champion gets a giant cup with his name on it.

Some day before you sign up, you will be conducted on an inspection tour of the shops.

Exchange News

By JOYCE HUBBS

Checking up on former Appleseeders via the "Hypho," we find that Ralph Tykodi won first prize in the American Legion Essay Contest; Marjorie McClure, Shirley Stickler, and Lois Wappner made the honorary volleyball team, and Ronald Kern participated in a recent assembly program.

We see by the "Washington Hi-Lights" that ninth grade students there are learning to dance. It seems that no one was participating in noon-day dances. (Sounds familiar, doesn't it?)

The following poem for hopeful "Frenchmen" comes from the "Hypho:"

"Bonjour," says Mlle. to all the class
 "Comment Allez-vous," lad or lass.
 "Le lecon pour demain," comes next,
 As she assigns our lesson from the text.
 "Allez au tableau noir," comes then
 And once in a while I hear "Tres bien."
 And tonight I'll have to cram and cram
 For tomorrow "Nous aurons une exam."
 Then the suspense will keep me a wreck
 'Till Mlle. Shaffer dit "C'est Correct!"

The teacher asked her class to write the names of the ten greatest men in the world. One boy wrote:

Five Rooms Reach Sales Tax Goal

The pupils of our school are collecting more sales tax stamps. This time the money will be used to buy a small moving picture machine to be used in individual rooms. The money from the previous collecting of stamps was used in buying glasses for the needy.

The five highest rooms are: First, 101, Miss Shaffer's room, who had reached their goal before any of the rest of the rooms and who on March 31 had a total of $624.17; second, 113; third, 314; fourth, 103, and fifth, 114.

The separate rooms were having contests between the boys and the girls and the ones that brought in the most were to be treated by the losers.

We now have a grand total of $6,109.37 worth of stamps.

MR. ROHLEDER HELPS TO EVALUATE SCHOOL

Mr. Rohleder, principal of Johny Appleseed, was asked to help evaluate the Ottawa Hills School, located in the village of Ottawa Hills, Toledo, Ohio. He was invited by Mr. F. W. Brown, superintendent of schools, to be a member of the committee for the evaluation of the school last March 13 and 14.

Dr. Rudolph Lindquist, director of Cranbrook Private School, was chairman of the committee. A group of outstanding school men from Ohio and Michigan served with him in evaluating this six-year high school.
