Notice of Nondiscrimination

Mansfield City Schools District does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability or age in its programs and activities.

We are an equal opportunity employer.

Dear Parent or Guardian:

We are pleased to inform you that the Mansfield City School District will continue to participate in the National School Lunch and School Breakfast Programs called the Community Eligibility Provision (CEP) for School Year 2026-2027.

What does this mean for you and your students attending Mansfield City Schools?

Great news! All enrolled students of the Mansfield City School District are eligible to receive a healthy breakfast and lunch at school at no charge each day of the 2026-2027 school year. No further action is required of you. Your student(s) will be able to participate in these meal programs without having to pay a fee or submit an application.

If you have questions, or we can be of further assistance, please call the Mansfield City Schools Food Service Department at (419) 525-6400 ext. 1010 or 1027, or email: moran.lauren@mansfieldschools.org.

Sincerely,

Lauren Moran

In accordance with federal civil rights law and USDA civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its agencies, offices, employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, disability, age, marital status, family/parental status, income derived from a public assistance program, political beliefs, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity, in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA (not all bases apply to all programs). Remedies and complaint filing deadlines vary by program or incident.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language, etc.) should contact the state or local agency that administers the program or contact USDA through the Telecommunications Relay Service at 711 (voice and TTY). Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English.
To file a program discrimination complaint, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, AD-3027, found online at How to File a Program Discrimination Complaint and at any USDA office or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide in the letter all of the information requested in the form. To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) 632-9992. Submit your completed form or letter to USDA by:

1. Mail: U.S. Department of Agriculture, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights, 1400 Independence Avenue, SW, Mail Stop 9410, Washington, D.C. 20250-9410;
2. Fax: (202) 690-7442; or
3. Email: program.intake@usda.gov.

USDA is an equal opportunity provider, employer, and lender.
