National Chocolate Chip Day:
May 15th

In 1937, Ruth Graves Wakefield of Whitman Massachusetts must have been curious about what a little bit of chocolate would add to her cookies. While working at the Toll House Inn, she added cut-up chunks of a semi-sweet Nestle chocolate bar to a cookie recipe. The cookies were a huge success, and in 1939 Wakefield signed an agreement with Nestle to add her cookie recipe to the chocolate bar's packaging.
