Public Participation: The board received comments from Matthew Clark, Pam Lawless, Ruby Feagin, Jonathon Winger, Nancy Murphy, and Cynthia Morgan, regarding the closing of Tyger Digital Academy. All who spoke were supportive of the Tyger Digital Academy. They praised the staff for their dedication and for providing an alternative for students who may not be successful in the traditional classroom. Mr. Elswick thanked the participants for their comments and said that the need to close the TDA was unfortunate but necessary, due to a lack of funding.

Mr. Feagin shared with the audience that he would not be able to vote regarding the closing of TDA, due to his wife being employed at the school. However, he wanted the record to show that he was strongly opposed to the closing and felt that that other options had not been explored or discussed.
