DEFENSE SCRAPBOOK

The government sent every school in the United States a scrapbook to fill with things that they did for "Victory".

In our scrapbook we put stories, poems, arithmetic problems, copies of the "Western Wind-Up", articles from the News Journal telling about the paper sales and scrap drive and posters.

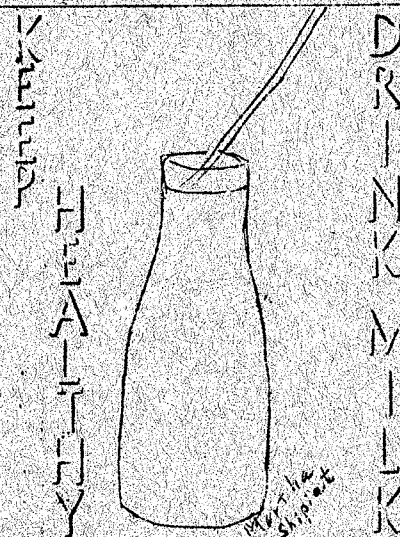

We will receive a Certificate of Service signed by the Secretary. Each state which has a state exhibit will receive an original brick from Independence Hall. This "Liberty Brick" will be placed in the state capital for permanent display.

SPRING MUSICALES

The Spring Musicales which the grade schools usually have are cancelled this year because of the war effort. The money we would have to use on tickets, costumes, transportation, etc. should be used for the buying of stamps and bonds.

This was decided at

MARCH OF DIMES

The "March of Dimes" this year will be from Jan. 20 to Jan. 30, ending on the President's birthday.

Fifty percent of the money collected in Mansfield will go to Richland County and fifty percent will go to the national organization to help fight infantile paralysis.

In Mansfield, Norman Wolfe and Mrs. Louise Reese are in charge of the program.

Usually at the White House they have parties, dinners, balls, etc. but this year they are not having them.

Norma McCally - 6

MILK DISTRIBUTION

Beginning Jan. 25, all the schools in Mansfield will be able to have milk distributed to the children. It will cost a penny for $\frac{1}{2}$ pint. You are supposed to pay one week in advance which will be five cents. We will get the milk in the morning.

The Board of Health is doing this because they want every boy and girl to be strong and healthy. So please drink milk at school and help get the vitamins and minerals you need.

MR. AND MRS. NEW YEAR

Mr. and Mrs. New Year lived at 1943 America Place. They lived with Uncle Sam and his wife, who hoped for a better and more cheerful year than the year of 1942. The big ahead of them is to make people realize the sacrifices they will have to make to win this war. There is nothing else that is so important to all of us as victory in 1943. Good luck Mr. and Mrs. New Year!

AFTER A YEAR AND A HALF AT WESTER

Several things of interest occur to my mind as I write this. Among those which give me most satisfaction are:

1. An interesting community which gives support to our school in a fine manner.
2. A group of 260 children, all different yet all alike in friendliness.
3. A staff of teachers happy in their work and cooperative to a very high degree.
4. An active and aggressive P.T.
5. Opportunities to serve in many fields.

Our pupils have cooperated with the programs of the school, the war programs, the Community Chest, Junior Red Cross and many other activities.

They have shown themselves to be good sports in inter school athletic contests and on our playground. They have become more safety conscious than formerly and cooperate well with the patrol groups.

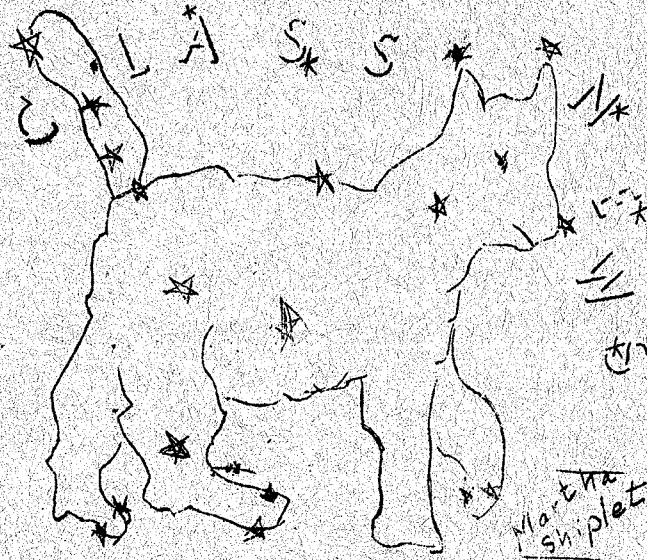

Their standards are high morally and socially.

I am happy to serve such a group in these surroundings.

Sincerely yours,

Your Principal

Jesse M. Clark

"ASTRONOMY"

In Mr. Clark's room we are going to study astronomy. Mr. Clark said he got in touch with Mr. W. Isham who had a telescope. He said that Mr. Isham will lecture about astronomy next Friday and will show some lantern slides to our class. He is bringing the telescope to school.

When the days are warmer we are going to look at the planets and moon at night outside. I think it will be very interesting work. I would like very much to see Saturn with its seven different colored rings around it and Mars' bright red glow.

Robert Hatzfeld - 6

"COLLECT SMALL BOTTLES"

We are collecting small bottles for geography in the sixth grade. Under Mr. Clark's supervision, these will be filled with different minerals from the various countries that we have studied. At the end of the term we hope to have a large collection.

After we get the bottles filled with the right minerals we are going to put pins on the map where the minerals are found.

We are going to tie a string around the bottles and hang them from the pins.

Peggy Pfister - 6

"WORLD MAP"

In Mr. Clark's room we are making a war map. For each country they have a different colored pin. We listen to war briefs and find out which country gains land. When we find out we move up the pin as far as the country has gone.

Albert Leitenberger - 6

PLAN GAMES

We have a game committee in our room. The people on the committee are Josephine Meyers, Warren Alverson, Ned Hall, Ruth Stambaugh and Jean Dettmer. They will pick games out of some game books and the the room plays them. This saves the time of choosing a game by the class.

Dick Butts - 6

"ITALY"

In Mrs. Smith's room we are studying about Italy. In Italy during the summer it is hot and dry. They do not have many cows in Italy. Most animals are sheep horses and donkeys. They also have olive oil trees and grapes in Italy.

Evelyn Goettl - 4

"COTTON OF THE SOUTH"

Cotton pickers in the South carry long bags with a strap over their shoulders. They put the picked cotton in these. By the time a bag is filled it drags behind them. It is necessary to go over the same field several times.

The cotton picking season is a very busy one. Men, women and children all work to pick the cotton.

At first the people had to pick the seed out of the cotton by hand. Some one had a man named Eli Whitney over to dinner and said, "I wish some one would invent a machine to take cotton seed out of cotton. Later Eli Whitney invented such a machine for this. He made all the tools which he needed by hand. The name of the machine we the cotton gin.

Barbara Treeland - 5

F. T. A. PRIZE

With the F.T.A. prize money that Miss Miles' room won we got a file. This file is for our reading records. Too, with our money we got some green fern for our aquarium.

We are also getting a book for our library and a victrola record with 19 bird calls.

It was very nice of the fifth grade to get something that all four grades can use.

Charlotte Boyd - 5

Peggy Pfister - 6

AUDUBON CLUB

The fourth, fifth and sixth grades are studying birds. We have studied the "English Sparrow" and the "Bob White". We have learned many interesting things about them.

The English Sparrow came from Europe. It was also found in India, Persia, Arabia and Africa. Today it is found nearly all over the United States wherever people live.

The male English Sparrow is mostly brown in color with a black "necktie" under his throat. The female is smaller than the male and doesn't have the necktie.

The Bob White is the size of a robin and the general color is rufous. It is heavily black-spotted or barred on its lower back. Its breast is white, the bill black.

In our club we received Jr. Audubon badges and colored pamphlets of the birds we study. We all think it is very interesting.

We have a bird feeding station at the side of our playground. Every week some of the pupils put some food in it for the birds.

ICE SKATING PARTY

Thursday, Jan. 26 we are planning to have an ice skating party at North Lake. We hope the ice is good. We want everyone in our room to go.

We will have contests and stunts planned by a committee. We hope we will have lots of fun and that nobody will get hurt.

Ro Anne Farry - 5

PARAGRAPH STUDY

In Miss Miles' room we are studying paragraphs. During dictation we put in the correct punctuation. We're also supposed to know the nouns, pronouns, adjectives, verbs and adverbs in any of the paragraphs.

Jo-Ann Blackstone - 6

Norma McCally - 6

TRAVEL POSTERS

In Miss Conn's room we are drawing pictures of ways the pioneers traveled out west. The different ways are by foot, horseback, covered wagon, stagecoach, canal boat, house boat and train. Each of these will be pictured on sheets of paper and made into a frieze which will be put in Mr. Clark's room.

Barbara Foster - 5

HEALTH CONTEST

We are making a health chart in Miss Wolf's room. We divide the class in three rows. The last one in each row gets a piece of chalk. When Miss Wolf says, "Go", the last one in each row goes up to the blackboard and writes two words which gives a health rule. This goes on till everyone has had a turn.

Malcolm Erich - 4

THE SUN PEELS IN

In Miss Wolf's room and Miss Engwiller's room the sun tried to play a little game on the teachers and the pupils there. It disturbed them so much that Mr. Clark told Mr. McElroy to take the window shades from Miss Verba's room and Mr. Clark's room and put them in the two other rooms to replace the worn out shades there.

We hope we will soon be getting new shades for the rooms where there are now none.

Ruth Stambaugh--6

NEW FLAGS

Western received two new flags because the old one was torn. The flags are four feet by six feet. We are very glad that Mr. Clark thought of buying them for us.

DEFENSE STAMPS

My brother and I have two ten cent Defense Stamp books each. We have each of them about half full. We have been earning money to fill them.

The last time it snowed in Mansfield another boy and I went out shoveled off walks and made money for Defense Stamps.

Our enemies are happy every time we spend our money for candy instead of war saving stamps. Gathering old scrap iron and other metals is important, too. One old flat iron will supply three hand grenades with iron.

CADDIE WOODLAWN
By Brink

I think the most interesting incident of the story was the time when Annabell Caddie's cousin came from Boston to visit. She was very learned, and Caddie, who was a tom-boy wondered how she could stand it. Caddie thought she would play some tricks on her. She gave her the horse which would brush off the rider on a low roof and when Annabell turned a cartwheel, she slipped an egg down Annabell's dress.

I liked the book because it was funny and also a mystery in parts.

When Renni grew older (about nine months) George wanted to start teaching Renni how to find wounded men. The boys next door acted as wounded men. Sometimes Renni would lick their faces because he knew they were his friends, sometimes George would feel like scolding Renni but he wouldn't.

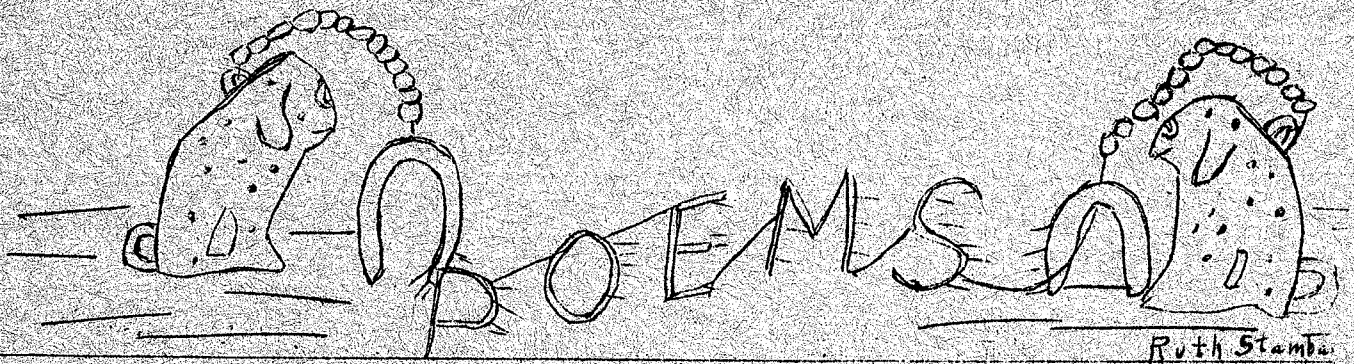

After while he went to fight at war. The sergeant didn't think Renni would be any good as a war dog but he let him try. One time Renni got a scent, he saw a man, then he went back and got George. When George got there he found the man was a general... He had a broken ankle and couldn't walk. George got hurt so he couldn't be in the war. Shirley London--6
