"SCHOOL TO GET NEW RADIO"

At a meeting of the Western Parent-Teacher Association it was decided to buy a radio system for the school. This is to be installed and ready for use by the beginning of the fall term.

The upper grade music classes have been listening to the N.B.C. music appreciation hour for the last few months.

The sixth grade class has been listening to the "Ohio School of the Air" each Wednesday at 2:45 o'clock. This program tells about great events in history such as the "Underground Railroad". This event concerned the smuggling of slaves into the North to gain their freedom.

Dan McMichael - 6A

"SPRING VACATION"

Mansfield City Schools will close Friday, March 26, at 3:35 P.M. for their spring vacation. Schools will open again Monday morning, April 5.

COME TO
TONIGHT

The Western Parent-Teacher Association will have its regular meeting at 7:45 tonight, March 10, in Miss Grubbaugh's room.

Mr. Floyd Dent and Mr. Russell Gimbel will speak on "Juvenile Delinquency in Mansfield."

Mr. A.L. Derr, a teacher at Hedges Jr. High will have some vocal selections as a part of the program.

Come! Do your part in making this meeting a success.

Patty Maglott - 6A

SPONSORED BY
MANSFIELD
P.T.A. COUNCIL

A ballet, "Pinocchio" will be given at the Mansfield Senior High School, March 16, by Edwin Strawbridge & Co. Children's tickets are 25%, adult tickets are 50%. It is being sponsored by the Mansfield Parent-Teacher Council.

A contest is being offered in which prizes will be awarded to the best entry of the primary, intermediate and junior high grades.

The primary grades are to write stories or poems. Their prize will be a puppet of Pinocchio.

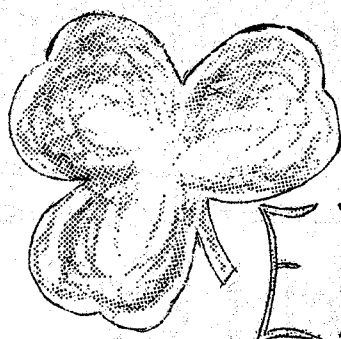

The intermediate grades are to make posters or write poems and make up music for them. Prizes for each of these will be the book, "Pinocchio".

There will be an evening performance at 8:15 by the same company when they will present "Ballet Intime". Reserved seats 75%, other seats 50%.

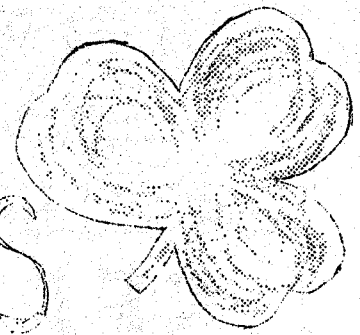

See at least one of these performances.

"SAINT PATRICK"

Every country has a saint whom it honors. The saint dearest to the Irish people is Saint Patrick. He was born in Scotland.

When he was 16 years old he was captured by pirates from Ireland. There he tended the flocks of an Ulster chieftain. He soon learned the customs of the Irish people. He became a devoted Christian. He escaped to France where he entered a monastery.

Saint Patrick had grown to love the Irish. He decided to return to Ireland and teach the Irish the Christian religion. There he founded over 300 churches.

One of the best known legends of Saint Patrick shows him as charming the snakes of Ireland by his music. They followed him to the shores where they were driven into the water and drowned.

He died on March 17, 463. He was loved by all the Irish people. To this day many Irish boys are named Patrick or Pat in his honor.

"STAFF GOES TO NEWS-JOURNAL OFFICE"

The members of the Western Wind-Up staff were fortunate on March 4, when they got to go down to the Mansfield News-Journal office and go through the plant.

The first thing we saw was the editorial department. In this department were the Managing Editor, City Editor, Assistant City Editor, Telegraph Editor, and several reporters.

The next place was a little room just off the editorial department where automatic typewriters got news "hot" off the wires.

In the next room the first thing that attracted our attention was the comic sheet made out of lead. We asked Mr. Lindsay about it. He said that it was made in this form so it could be used for the many copies of the paper. He told us that most of the comics come from New York. In this room were several men who set the type for the different pages of the paper.

Another room was full of linotype machines. Mr. Lindsay asked a man there if he would type our names on one of the machines. First, he types the name on keys something like a typewriter. Second, he presses a little pedal with his foot and there's something that goes on inside of the machine that we cannot explain to you. Finally a little piece of hot lead comes out of a small shaft with the letters on it.

We then saw where they pressed a mat made of wood-fiber on a page set up with lead letters. The man who operated the machine said there were several tons of pressure applied to it.

The last room was the press room. There we saw the very large printing press. Mr. Lindsay took us around to the other side of the press where we saw a shaft through which the wood-fiber pages came down from upstairs. A man placed one of these pages on a big semi-circle and made a cast of the page. When that was done they put the casts on the big rollers of the press. Mr. Lindsay said that the press cost $50,000 and would print one hundred and fifty copies a minute.

We are grateful to Mr. Lindsay for the time he took to show us the plant and we hope you may see the same thing some time.

We also want to thank Miss Miles for arranging this trip for us as well as Mrs. Stambaugh and Mr. Bierly for taking us in their cars.

James Bierly

"SCHOOL NEWSPAPER CONTEST"

The Mansfield Typewriter and Office Supply Company is sponsoring a newspaper contest in which any elementary school in Richland, Ashland, Morrow, Knox, Crawford, Wyandot, and Marion counties may participate.

Each school that enters the contest must publish at least three school papers during the year. One copy of the year's best issue is to be submitted for the contest.

The papers will be judged on the write ups, lay outs, neatness, color work, originality, and advertising.

Jane Williams, Paul Thrush, and

Coleman Todd will serve as judges. A loving cup will be given to the winner of the contest.

Anne Loughridge - 6A

"MOVING PICTURES OF SCHOOL CHILDREN"

Mr. Freeman arranged to have moving pictures taken of the children in our school. Mr. Oberlander, a teacher of Mansfield Senior High took them.

In our class we lined up around the room and then walked past the camera. Lenore Betz did a tap dance. Dan McMichael and Bob Harbaugh gave an amateur tap dance.

We are anxious to see the pictures.

Joan Marles - 6A

"OPERETTA CHOSEN"

On May 4, we will give the operetta, "The Magic Beanstalk" by Hubrich. It is written in three acts. Here is a brief story of it.

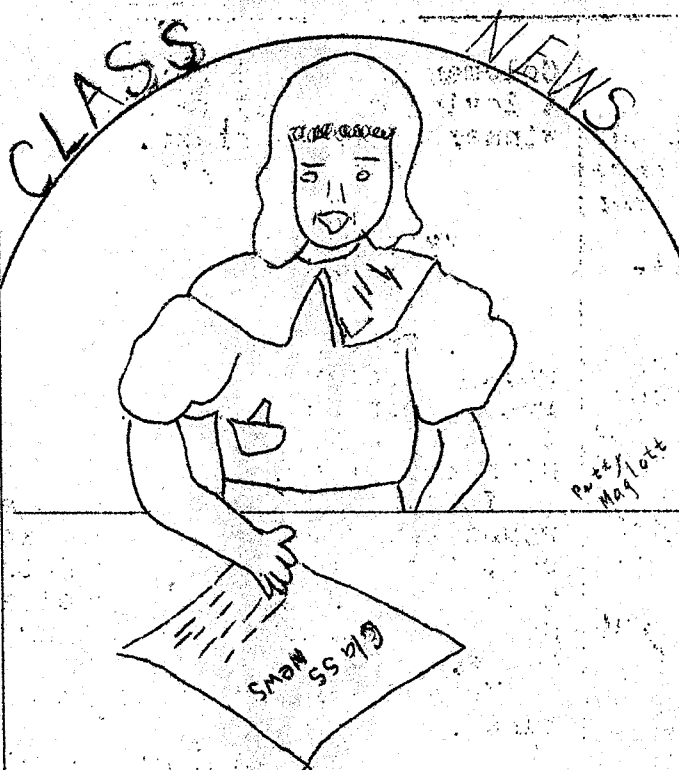

The scene opens in an old English Village Green where some of the villagers are making merry. Jack who has been sailing the seas returns home and tells of his exciting adventures. Captain Kid appears on the scene with his band of pirates who boast of their daring exploits.

Jack's mother enters and is overcome with joy at his safe return. Jack's mother then tells him that robbers have stolen all their possessions. Jack then decides to take Juliana, the cow, to the fair and sell her.

While at the fair Jack is attracted by Foolemesis, the Magician, who has five magic beans for sale. Jack bargains for the beans.

Jack has more interesting adventures because of these beans. The story ends with Jack and his mother being happy forever afterwards.

Marjorie Wentz - 6A

"FIRST GRADE"

We are having a paper cutting contest in our room. We are cutting automobiles. Whoever cuts the best ambulance gets a toy ambulance. We are working hard.

Marilyn Pendleton
John Park

We have new building blocks. They are very big blocks. Mrs. Roberts had them made for us. We can build houses and other things. It is fun to build with them.

Bill Werner
Norman Henry

Eugene Eyerly is eight years old today, March 1.
Nancy Condon

Miss Grubaugh's class welcomes Lila Cook from the Prospect building.

Betty Lou Miller

"MISS VERBA'S ROOM"

The second grade children are studying about Dutch people. We made a library corner. We have library rules. We like our library corner.

Cornelia Mastrek
John Spear

The children of the first grade are working at their library corner. The boys made chairs and painted them. The girls made designs and painted them on a long piece of cloth making a wall hanging for their library corner.

The second grade are making a movie. It is about the farm. They are also planting grass in the sand table.

Anne Gilbert - 5A

"THIRD GRADE"

The boys and girls of Miss White's third grade are studying about Holland. They are learning dances, singing songs, drawing pictures, writing stories and poems, and reading books about this very interesting country.

Helen Buchan - 5A

"INDIANS"

In the third grade they are studying about the Navajo Indians. They made an Indian village out of paper. Miss Anderson chose the best wigwams for the village. They also made paper canoes and on both they put Indian symbols. In front they have a sign that says "Indian-village". They also show one of the canoes being made in a frame. Hope you will come down and see our Indian village some day.

Jack Houlette - 4A

"ARITHMETIC CONTEST"

In Miss Wolf's room the arithmetic classes of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades are having contests. The captains and the names of the teams are as follows:

Grade - Name of Team - Captain
6A - Elm Tree - Patty Maglott
- Oak Tree - Jack Eisman
5A - California Poppy - Terry Shilton
- Scarlet Carnation - Carl Shafer
5A - Jack Benny - Janet Goldsmith
- Fred Allen - Varick Smith
4A - Toar - David Marles
- Popeye - Donald Russell
Regina Finney - 6A

"VOCABULARY STUDY"

As a part of our reading work in grades 4, 5, and 6 we have been having a vocabulary study. Miss Miles writes three words on the blackboard taken from the stories we are reading in our readers. We copy these on our papers and look up their pronunciation and meanings in our dictionaries.

Georgeann Kyle
James McClure - 6A

"ELECT OFFICERS"

We elected officers for our class work in history and geography in Mr. Freeman's room. The officers elected were:

President - Carl Shafer
Vice President - Jean Wentz
Secretary - Suzanne Sotherland

The President had charge of the history and the Vice President, the geography. The secretary grades the papers and puts the grades in the grade book.

Jean Wentz - 5A

"SECOND GRADE"

The children of Miss Engwiller's room are making an afghan for the Junior Red Cross. We have woven 290 squares. We are putting the squares together now. We are going to have a red cross in the center and a red cross in each corner.

Anne Parsons

We are studying about farms. Grains come from farms. These are the grains, wheat, corn, and oats. We have some grains of corn, popcorn and oats. We will have some wheat soon.

Doris Alverson

Miss Engwiller was in Florida. She brought back some pretty shells and a coconut. Spoons were brought and each child had a taste of the milk and a piece of the coconut meat.

Patricia Ellen Herr

"LEARN ABOUT TIME PIECES"

The fifth grades are taking old watches and clocks apart. We studied the different parts. We mounted these on cardboard to exhibit them.

Some children have made sundials and other devices for marking time. We have made poems and read stories about time pieces.

Lloyd Shawber
Jack Brollier - 5A

"HAVE WRITING CHART"

In the fifth grade class we have a writing chart. Miss Conn gives us a gold star if she thinks we have used our best writing, a blue star for next to the best writing, a red star is for medium quality. A figure five on the chart means we have done poor work.

"MY 3000 MILE TRIP SOUTH"

by

Jack Lautsbaugh - 5A

In Kentucky the Ohio River flood had turned houses over on their roofs and carried buildings into the streets which made it hard to get into Kentucky. In Kentucky the interesting things were the stone fences, many mules on farms, and the mountains. I also saw the University of Kentucky.

While in Tennessee I rode up the incline railway to the top of Lookout Mountain where a battle was fought above the clouds during the Civil War.

In Georgia almost all of the ground is red clay. In Atlanta we passed the Federal Prison. Shortly after leaving Atlanta I saw my first palm tree. Another interesting thing was the way negroes live in huts that are built up off the ground. The children play under the houses as they have no cellars under them. Georgia also has many pecan trees. I picked some cotton in a field.

I thought that Florida was the most interesting state that I visited. I saw many kinds of palm trees, such as Royal palms and Coconut palms. There were cypress trees growing in swamps. There were also banyan rubber trees. Florida, of course, has thousands of orange and grapefruit trees and the fruit grows like apples on them.

On the west coast of Florida I saw my first pelicans. These have long bills with large sacks under the bills where they can hold fish when they catch them.

We next visited the Bok Singing Tower. This is a bird sanctuary. Here music is played on bells which were brought from England.

In Miami I saw many deep sea fishing boats come in each evening and unload fish of all kinds. There were sailfish, hammerheads, sharks, tuna fish and other smaller fish.

I also visited a Seminole Indian village where I saw an Indian wrestle an alligator.

While walking along the water front I watched them unload some ocean liners. I went on board a U. S. destroyer where I saw how they feed the sailors on a war ship.

At Miami Beach I saw the Atlantic Ocean and many rich men's homes and yachts. I also saw several banana trees. The banana bunches hang down from the tree but the bananas grow upwards on the stem instead of hanging down.

Driving up the east coast we stopped at West Palm Beach where I picked up two coconuts. We then drove out on the sand beach along the ocean at Daytona where speed races are held each year.

I thought St. Augustine, Fla. was the most interesting city of the trip.

"VACATIONING IN FLORIDA"

by

Thomas Wolford - 6A

We left Mansfield on February 1, to spend a month in Florida. We traveled by auto to Cincinnati and saw the ruins caused by the flood. Continuing South we crossed the Great Smoky Mountains. Passing through Georgia we saw fields of cotton and peach trees in blossom and many trees of pecans.

Entering Florida we were surprised to see that the flowers and fruit were five to six weeks earlier than usual. Spending a few days at Clearwater Beach we saw many orange groves.

We went farther south to Sarasota where Ringling Bros. circus winters and trains their animals. Training lions is most interesting to see. We also visited Ringling Bros. fine art collection.

Then across the state to West Palm Beach where we made our home for a few weeks. The most thrilling time we had was deep sea fishing.

Everybody Knit, weave, or crochet for our afghan.

"AFGHAN BLOCKS NEEDED"

We need many more blocks for our afghan. The blocks may be woven, knitted or crocheted. The size of the blocks is 6 inches by 6 inches. So far we have only 30 blocks of this size. We would like to get at least enough blocks to make a small afghan. This could be used by the patients in wheel chairs. The completed afghans are to be sent to the Soldiers and Sailors Home.

"IN APPRECIATION"

We wish to take this opportunity to thank the parents and friends of the boys and girls in this school for the home made candy which was donated by them for our Junior Red Cross booth at the Benefit Bridge. We took in $22.77. This will be used to buy glasses for needy children in Mansfield.

Lenore Betz - 6A

"MAKE VALENTINE FAVORS"

Our Junior Red Cross made favors for the General Hospital for Valentine's Day. The favors were made of red and white paper. They were shaped like white swans and placed on a red heart. These were filled with red candy hearts. They were very pretty.

Regina Finney - 6A

"ELECT NEW OFFICERS"

The Junior Red Cross held a meeting March 3, after school in Miss Miles' room. New officers were elected. These included:

President - Kitty Bushnell
Vice President - Terry Shelton
Secretary - Jean Wentz
Treasurer - Nancy Giles

These people were elected by the two representatives from each room.

Ralph Schuler - 6A

"COLLECT $44.70 FOR FLOOD RELIEF"

Western's Junior Red Cross collected $44.70 for the flood relief. Contributions were taken in each room. The money was then taken down to Red Cross headquarters and they sent it to the needy districts.

David Todd - 6A

Mrs. W.J. Bishop, chairman of the Junior Red Cross here has received a special appeal from Paducah, Ky. asking for story books, picture books, games and toys.

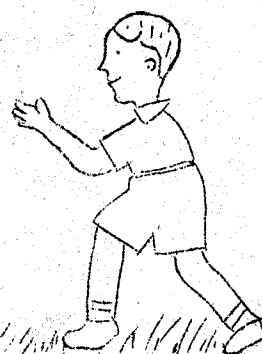

The Junior Red Cross of Paducah are trying to provide recreation for the children there who lost their toys and games in the flood. About 500 children are still living in tents and shacks close to the city.

If you wish to have a part in helping these children, bring your articles to the school building not later than Friday noon, March 12.

POETRY

"PINOCCHIO"

Pinocchio is a puppet gay
He kicked Geppetto and ran away,
Every time he told a lie
His nose would almost touch the sky.

The talking cricket gave him good advice,
He told him he was skating on thin ice.
Geppetto finally got out of jail,
Only to find Pinocchio in a wail.

But soon Geppetto sent him to school,
Of course to learn the Golden Rule.
He sold his spelling book to go to a show,
But of this Geppetto did not know.

Old Fire-eater gave some money to him,
But the fox and cat were sure to win.
Then Pinocchio became very sick,
The Blue Fairy scared him and the spoon he did lick.

He told Geppetto he would turn over a new leaf,
And that was certainly a big relief.
But then again he was very bad,
Was swallowed by a whale and made quite sad.

Suddenly he saw a light,
Through the darkness he did fight.
Why! It was Geppetto of course,
He had called until he was very hoarse.

They finally crawled out the big whale's mouth.
They had no compass so they didn't know South.
As soon as they got on land
Pinocchio then put in a hand.

Finally the Blue Fairy changed him to a boy,
He was no longer then a toy.
Then Pinocchio was very gay,
And did no longer want to play.

"EASTER"

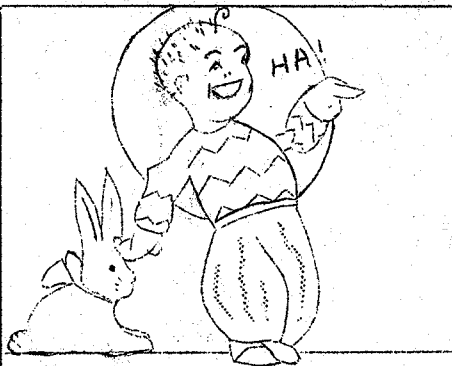

It comes once every year,
It means love and good cheer,
You never tell what day,
April, March, and maybe May.

This year it comes in March I see,
Leaves and buds on every tree.
People dress in their best
Animals arise from rest.

Christ arose on Easter Day,
The Women's tears passed away.
The lilies were very white,
As they shone in the sunlight.
Janice Carter - Grade 6

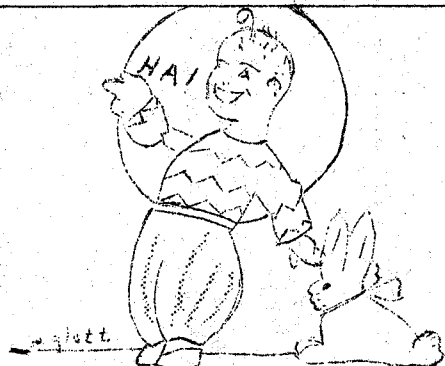

"SPRING"

Spring is nearly here,
I am glad for summer then is near.
The birds and bees will come,
I love to hear them sing and hum.

JOKES

Little Rodney went to Holland. One day as he looked out of the window he saw some cows in front of the windmill.

Then he said to his mother, "Holland sure is rich, it even has fans to fan the cows."

Jack Lautsbaugh: "I saw some gaiters that no one can wear."

Bud Porter: "And why was that?"

Jack Lautsbaugh: "Because they were alli-gators."

Andy Lamoreux: "When is a candle very cross?"

Jack Brollier: "I don't know."

Andy Lamoreux: "When it flares up and is put out."

Son (entering office): "Well, Dad, I just ran up to say, hello."

Dad: "Too late, my boy. Your mother just ran up to say, hello, and got all my change."

David Todd: "Why are there no insane asylums in Arabia?"

James McClure: "Because no mad (Nomad) people live there."

Mr. Freeman: "Remember, class, no one can reach success without starting at the bottom and working up."

Dick Stout: "Yes, but what about the parachute jumper?"

Jane: "What kind of tooth paste do you use?"

Anne: "I don't use tooth paste. My teeth aren't loose."

Miss Conn: "John, what is a tambourine?"

John Gibson: "It is a little fruit."

Miss Wolf: "Richard, if you had a quarter then loaned a dime to Jay and three cents to James, how many cents would you have left?"

Richard Davis: "If I did that, I wouldn't have any sense."

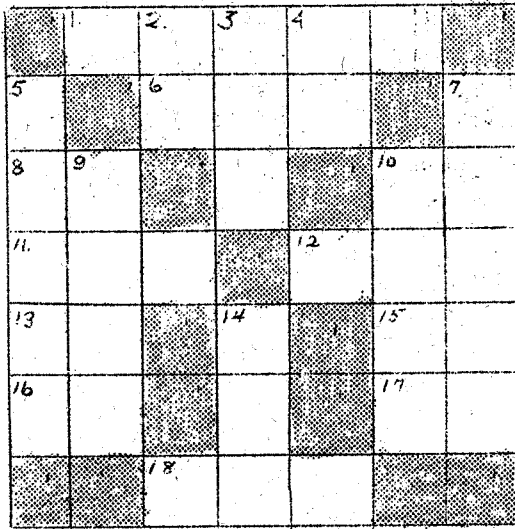

"A newspaper recently said that scientists had invented an earthquake detector that goes off like an alarm clock. What most of us need is an alarm clock that goes off like an earthquake."

ANSWER TO LAST PUZZLE

"GO ICE SKATING"

The children of the upper grades went ice skating after school on March 1, at North Lake Park. Miss Miles went with them.

We played prisoner's base and tag on the ice. It was fun. James Bierly and Dick Stout did some fancy skating and some stunts. James did the "Flying Dutchman" and other fancy skating. Dick did the "Flying Dutchman" and gave a demonstration of a sit down strike.

We all had a good time and hope that we can go again.
