"BIRTHDAY MONTH"

Washington and Lincoln were two of the most famous men born in the month of February.

Abraham Lincoln was kind and true. Over a half century ago he was riding along with a few other men. They were going to a party. In the woods Lincoln saw where some baby birds had fallen out of their nest. He got out of the carriage, put the baby birds back in the nest and then went on. When he got to the party they asked why he was so late. He told them that he would not have been able to sleep that night if he had not stopped and put the little birds back in their nest.

Washington was our first president. He served two terms from 1789 to 1797. A tribute to him by his friend Lee was "First in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen."

"NEW TEACHER AT WESTERN"

Olga Angeloff - 6

"NEW ART PROJECT"

Miss Robinson suggested that we make pictures in colored chalk in place of our old pictures. She said that we could paint the frames white and make the room more modern.

We started our pictures with charcoal. Some made nursery rhymes and others scenes of out-of-doors. Then we used colored chalk rubbing it in at certain places making them more life like.

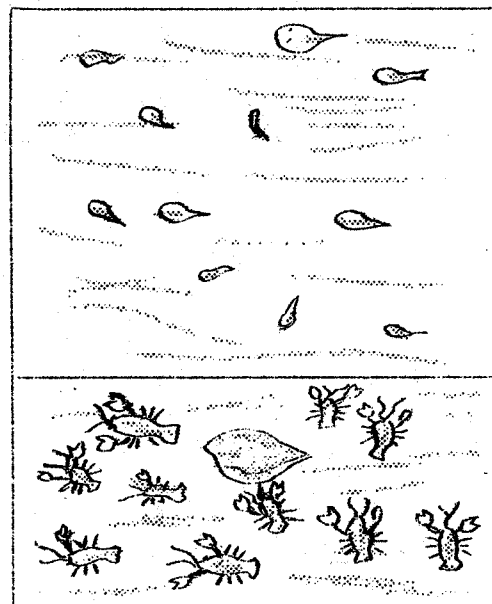

The ones to go in frames will be chosen by Miss Robinson.

POEMS

"IN THE EVENING"

In the evening when the day is done,
We all sit by the fire and have lots of fun.
Daddy reads the story of Ferdinand the bull,
And we all eat popcorn until we are full.

Mother says, "Children, it's time to retire",
We don't like to go and leave the fire.
But rest and sleep must always be had,
Or the next day's work will surely be bad.

Joan Senert - 4

"SUNNY JIM"

I had a little doggie,
His name was Sunny Jim.
I put him in the bathtub,
To see if he could swim.
He drank up all the water,
And he ate up all the soap,
And he died last night,
With a bubble in his throat.

Harriet Ann Lutz - 3

"POOCHEE"

Poochee is my dog,
He is very black.
Every time he sees a rabbit,
His nose is on the track.

Janet Mayer - 1

"VALENTINES"

Sister comes in shouting for the hundredth time,
Look! Another valentine!
Brother comes in yelling,
Hey! Look at mine!

There's one from Jane, Bet and Sue,
Alice, May, and Betty Lou.
Here's one from Dick, John and Jay,
And they'll keep on coming all the day.

Irene Ellis - 6

"FERDINAND"

Ferdinand was so full of glee,
Until he sat on a bumble bee.
He got up and pawed the ground,
'Til he almost fell right down.

They took him to the fight,
But he was so full of fright,
They took him home that day,
And there he will always play.

Tom Emerson - 4

"MY PUPPY DOG"

I had a little puppy dog,
Who had a rubber nose,
And every time he fell on it,
He bounced up on his toes.
